

A Hero's Welcome

By: Robert Longley

*Time to come home dear brother
Your tour of duty through
You've given as much as anyone
Could be expected to do.
Just a few steps further
The smoke will start to clear
Others here will guide you
You have no need to fear.
You have not failed your brothers
You dearly gave it all
And through your selfless actions
Others will hear the call.
So, take your place of honor
Among those who have gone before
And know you will be remembered
For now, and evermore.*

Obituary

Oscar D. Marshall was born on December 26, 1932, to Rebecca Stewart and Rev. Ed E.D. Marshall. After he graduated from high school, Oscar went on to join the Army, and was active duty for 30 years. He served in Vietnam, was a purple heart recipient, and a member of the 82 Airborne Division. He departed this earthly life on July 3, 2022, at the age of 89.

After graduating with both an associate and bachelor's degree from Park College, he became an entrepreneur. He started his own janitorial business, where his clients included both the state and the federal government.

Oscar was preceded in death by his wife, Eartha Marshall. Oscar and Eartha Marshall were married for 68 wonderful years, and went on to have five children, David, Alan, Oscar, Jr. (Dan), Lisa, and Shannon. He had two grandchildren, Shar'ron Wilson and Nicholas Palmer, and several great-grandchildren. He was also preceded in death by his brothers, Horace Marshall and Bobby Jiles.

In addition to his children and grandchildren, Oscar is survived by: his brothers and sisters, Annie Ruth Devose, Willie C. Wilson, Edward Marshall, Lelia Tullos, Caesar Marshall, and J.V. Jiles.
