Proverbs 31:13-31

- 13 she seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.
- 14 She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar.
- 15 She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.
- 16 She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.
- 17 She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.
- 18 She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.
- 19 She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.
- 20 She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.
- 21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet.
- 22 She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.
- 23 Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.
- 24 She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant.
- 25 Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.
- 26 She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.
- 27 She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.
- 28 Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.
- 29 Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.
- 30 Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised.
- 31 Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Acknowledgement

Obituary
of
Mrs. Anita Harrington Pastures

Mrs. Anita Harrington Pastures was born on August 19, 1959, in Harlem, New York. She was the daughter of the late Arthur and Lorraine Harrington. Anita quietly and peacefully was called home to be with her Lord and Savior on July 4, 2022.

She was educated in the New York City public school system, and was a graduate of Washington Irving High School, in New York City. While at Washington Irving, Anita excelled academically. Anita began her career as an Auxillary Police Officer with New York City Morningside Police Department, in New York City. As a police officer, she earned many awards of recognition during her career. She later became an entrepreneur, opening "Dolls of Color by Anita." Having an eye for detail, she used her skills and talents to create and design a beautiful collection of African American Art.

Her work didn't stop there, she was later employed with Blue Cross Blue Shield of South Carolina for 20 years, reaching the position of Administrative Associate Level 2, earning many awards of recognition during her career. Over the course of her employment, Anita formed many valued relationships with her co-workers. She was a devoted employee. She would often use her creative skills at work, in preparation for important company functions and events. Anita was known for going above and beyond. She loved being a team player.

In her younger years, she attended Carolina Baptist Church, in New York City, and sang on the church choir with her siblings. When she relocated to Columbia, South Carolina, she attended Brookland Baptist Church, Northeast, where she was an avid goer. Anita gave her life to Christ, and she believed in sharing her knowledge and beliefs with her five grandchildren.

Mrs. Anita Harrington Pastures leaves to mourn her passing: two daughters, Adama Tiffany Pastures and Athena Lorraine Pastures; five grandchildren, Arteria, Jaiden, Joshua, Adamian, and Anita; stepmother, Brenda Harrington; two sisters, Lillian Y. Harrington, of Bronx, New York and Sharon Harrington Chambers, Owings Mills, Maryland; two brothers, Arthur Norman Harrington, of Rembert, South Carolina and Jamel Keyvin Harrington, of Florida; one brother-in-law, Earl Chambers, of Maryland; goddaughter, Shania Avio'n Choice, of Sumter, South Carolina; two aunts, Diane Keys, of Florida and Carolina Williams, of Pennsylvania; one uncle, Tom (Elsie) Patterson, of Rembert, South Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
