Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*

Life Well Lived

*A life well lived
is a precious gift
Of hope and strength and grace,
From someone who has made our world
A brighter, better place
It's filled with moments, sweet and sad
With smiles and sometimes tears,
With friendships formed and good times shared
And laughter through the years.
A life well lived is a legacy
Of joy and pride and pleasure,
A living, lasting memory
Our grateful hearts will treasure*

Obituary

Jean Alice Griffin Robinson, with characteristics of grace and unobtrusiveness, entered into eternal life on Saturday, July 9, 2022. The daughter of the late Johnnie Griffin and Vivian Feaster Griffin, she was born in Columbia, S. C. on July 15, 1936.

She attended Carver Elementary School and C. A. Johnson High School, in Richland County, graduating in 1954. She continued her quest for knowledge at Allen University. In her pursuit of excellence, she later received her Master of Science Degree in Education, from S. C. State College.

Jean entered into holy matrimony to Leonard Green, and to their union they were blessed with their only daughter, Jeannelle Leona, born on April 17, 1962. Jeannelle preceded her mother in death on August 19, 2002. Mrs. Robinson later married U.S. Army SFC (Ret.) Lewis Robinson on June 27, 1987. Following an extended illness, Mr. Robinson entered into eternal life on March 11, 2020.

Having fully entered into adulthood, Mrs. Robinson chose a career in education. She was an elementary school teacher in Richland County School District One, for over 40 years. She taught at several schools in Richland County, including Carver Elementary, and Satchel Ford Elementary just to name a few.

Mrs. Robinson was baptized into the Methodist faith at Emmanuel A.M.E. Church, at an early age. During her many decades of service to the church, she served as the church secretary, a member of several choirs, served on numerous committees, served on the trustee board, and served in various other capacities throughout the years.

Mrs. Robinson's social affiliations included the Levart Club, Club 24, and The Red Hat Society.

In addition to her parents and daughter, Jean was preceded in death by: her sisters, Frankie B. Garrett, and Dorothy Owens, and her brothers, Joseph and James Griffin;

Mrs. Robinson leaves to cherish her precious memory: her two nieces, Vanessa Owens, of Columbia, SC and Audrey Owens, of Long Island, NY; two nephews, Christopher T. Garrett III, of Washington, DC and Michael Garrett, of Teaneck, NY; sister-in-law, Katherine Boyd, of Orangeburg, SC, a host of other loving relatives, and lifelong friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
