

Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. ² In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? ³ And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also.

John 14:1-3

Reflections of Life: James "Flip" Davis, Jr.

James Davis, Jr. was born September 29, 1944 in Columbia, SC. He was the son of the late James Sr. and Soporina Davis. He was the third of five children and the first-born son. He departed his life on August 11, 2022, after a valiant fight with small cell lung cancer.

He was a member of Taylor Chapel Church. He graduated from C.A. Johnson High School, Class of 1962. He was drafted into the United States Army, and served during the Vietnam War. He returned to Columbia, SC and retired after 38 years as a supervisor for the Water Division at City of Columbia.

He was preceded in death by his parents, James Sr. and Soporina Davis; one brother, Theodore Davis; one sister, Thelma Davis.

Left to cherish his memory are two daughters, Yolanda Renee (Cornell) Stewart of Columbia, SC and Erin Elizabeth Davis of Charlotte, NC; two granddaughters, Ashley Stewart of Columbia, SC and Britney Stewart of Greenville, SC; two great-grandsons, Robert and Carter Dailey of Columbia, SC; two sisters, Mary D. Brown and Ernestine (John) Miles of Columbia, SC; one brother, William H. (Vivian) Davis of Winnsboro, SC; one sister-in-law, Teresa Davis of Columbia, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other family and friends.

A TRIBUTE TO MY FAMILY

When I am gone, release me, let me go.

I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,
But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess
How much you've given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It is only for a while that we must part,
So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,
All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a 'Welcome Home'.

For I am ready to be offered and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.

II Timothy 4: 6-7

Acknowledgement

Jesus promised us, they who mourn would be comforted. During our hours of bereavement, this promise has been fulfilled by you, our kind and loving family and friends. Thank you for helping us bear our grief. A special thank you to the staff at Caris Healthcare, South Carolina Oncology Associates (SCOA – Dr. Collins and PA Savannah Roof), Prisma Health Pulmonary (Dr. Zha), Taylor Chapel Church and Cedar Creek Community Church.
