Reflections of the Life of
Mrs. Carolyn Lavon Frazier

Carolyn Lavon Smith Frazier was born January 14, 1949, in Gastonia, North Carolina, to the late John Wesley Smith and Dora Mitchell. Mrs. Frazier, 73, of Columbia, South Carolina, fell asleep in death on Thursday, August 4, 2022, at home surrounded by her loving family.

She graduated from North Rockland High School in Haverstraw, New York. She met and married Jesse Frazier on August 17, 1974, and later moved to Columbia, South Carolina, to raise their family. Carolyn worked in various roles throughout her life, but her greatest joy was working with people from a very young age in daycare to the elderly in private duty. Her deep love of God, her family, and others were the guiding principles in her life.

On June 25, 1988, she was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses at the Carolina Coliseum in Columbia, SC. Her dedication on that day would lead to numerous years of faithful service to Jehovah. Sister Frazier enjoyed field service, regularly attending meetings, and studying the Bible. She joined many others in the full-time ministry when she began "Pioneering" September 1, 2005, seeking first the Kingdom by engaging in house-to-house witnessing, phone witnessing, letter writing, prison ministry, cart witnessing, while helping others to embrace Christianity. Sister Frazier would use every opportunity to tell people about Jehovah and his promises. Despite her failing health, she continued to remain a faithful servant of Jehovah.

Carolyn was an extremely loving, kind, generous, and selfless person towards others. She was always willing to aid people in need and give words of encouragement. She would embrace everyone with a warm smile and her infectious laughter. All who knew her felt blessed to have had her in their lives.

She is survived by her husband, Jesse Frazier, her brother John Wesley Smith, Jr., of Salisbury, NC and four children, Erik Smith (Natasha), of Columbia SC, Tyrone Smith, of Palm Desert, CA, Dana Henderson, of Columbia, SC, and Jeremy Frazier of Columbia SC, nephew, Jarrad Smith (Kristen), of Harrisburg PA and niece, Jacyntha Smith, of Salisbury, NC. She had 13 grandchildren, 5 great-grandchildren, great nephews and a great niece and host of other family and friends who mourn her loss. She is predeceased by her sister Shirley Smith James and her brother, Eric Bynum.

When I'm Gone

*When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile
Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun
Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day
Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay
And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best*
