Reflections of the Life of Ms. Georgia Hnn Pearson

Ms. Georgia Ann Pearson, known by her family as a Mom, Wife, Grandma, Auntie, Sister, and Cousin, was born April 8, 1932 in Prosperity, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Arthur and Annie Nance Williams. Georgia was joined in holy matrimony to the late Sergeant James Pearson. She departed this life on Saturday, August 13, 2022.

Georgia Ann, the matriarch of the family, was educated in the public schools of Prosperity, South Carolina. At an early age, she joined Lever Chapel A.M.E. Church, in Prosperity. She later became a lifetime member of Emmanuel A.M.E. Church, in Columbia, South Carolina. At Emmanuel, she served with the Women's Club, Floral Club, and the Women's Missionary Society. She was also a member of the Ladies Home Aid Society, of Newberry. She worked in culinary services at the Pentagon, in Washington, D.C., Richland School District One, and the Fantasy Island Day Care. While at Fantasy Island, she was promoted to the lead position. In all her endeavors, she provided love to countless children and adults with whom she came in contact over the years. Additionally, Ms. Pearson became known for her stellar housekeeping, designs, and catering services.

All who knew Georgia Ann knew she had a unique, one-of-a-kind, exuberance-for-life, and beautifully bold personality. She was not one to mince words. If you were seeking truth and passion, she was the one you would go to for advice. She also had a great sense of humor. Never one to miss a good laugh, you were guaranteed to chuckle at least once in her presence. Shortly before passing, Georgia Ann shared a poem to reflect her sentiments on going to meet God, it closed with, "Now I must go to meet my loved ones waiting for me. Love must go on."

She traveled extensively. During her life, she resided in the following places: Tacoma, Washington, Alabama, Washington, D.C., Maryland, and finally made Columbia, South Carolina her home.

In addition to her parents and her husband, she was preceded in death by: her sons, Terry Albert Pearson, Sr. and Burley James Pearson, Sr.; her sisters, Annie Lee Bates, Virginia Parris, Susie Duckett, Lucy Bates, and Edith Brunson; and her brothers, Eugene Williams, Hobart Williams, and Henry Williams.

Ms. Georgia Ann Pearson leaves to cherish her precious memory: her son, Ellis Ray Pearson; grandchildren, Ayanna Pearson Fischer, Terry Pearson, Jr. Leviticus Miller, Burley Pearson, Jr., Jamaal Freeman, Corey Pearson, Raygen Pearson, Christian Pearson, Carrington Pearson, and Presley Pearson; great-grandchildren, Deanna Huskey, Daquan Pearson, Jayden Pearson, Zalia Pearson, Kyree Pearson, Elliana Pearson; great-great-grandchildren, Reign Azariah McCray and Ivy Rose Pearson; two loving and caring daughters-in-law, Viola Pearson and Sandra Pearson; devoted caretaker and grandniece, R. Michelle Hartwell; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives, and friends.

To Those I Love and To Those Who Love Me

When I am gone release me; let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You must not tie yourself to me with tears, Be happy that we had so many years. I gave you my love - you can only guess How much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown. But now it is time I traveled on alone. So, grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must; Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, So, bless the memories within your heart. I won't be far away, for life goes on. So, if you need me, call, I will come. Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near; And if you listen with your heart you will hear All of my love around you, soft and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and say "Welcome Home."
