

*To Those I Love and
To Those Who Love Me*

When I am gone release me; let me go.

I have so many things to see and do.

You must not tie yourself to me with tears,

Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love – you can only guess

How much you gave me in happiness.

I thank you for the love you each have shown.

But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So, grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must;

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It's only for a while that we must part,

So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.

So if you need me, call, I will come.

Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near;

And if you listen with your heart you will hear

All of my love around you, soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and say

“Welcome Home.”

Obituary

Mrs. Carolyn Douglass Porterfield was born on April 14, 1950, in Manhattan, New York. She was the daughter of the late Leroy Douglass and Pauline Mapp Douglass.

Carolyn attended the public schools of New York including New York University. Carolyn obtained her bachelors degree from Phoenix University. Her career as a transportation driver began in New York. After relocating to South Carolina, she continued in the transportation industry.

Whenever she wasn't working, Carolyn loved spending time in fellowship with her church, Kingdom Vision. She sang on the choir, and drove the church bus to transport members to and from service. Carolyn loved being in the house of the Lord.

In addition to her parents, Carolyn was preceded in death by: her daughter, Vanessa Rawland; brothers, Melvin Douglass and Melvin Lee Douglass; and a sister, Barbara Douglass.

Mrs. Carolyn Douglass Porterfield is survived by: her husband, Lindburgh Porterfield, Jr.; step-children, Lindburgh Porterfield, III and Brian D. Porterfield; brothers, Ronald (Barbara), Edward, James (Brenda), and Milton Douglass; sisters, Sharonda (William) Mercer and Darlene Douglass; a host grandchildren, other loving relatives, and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Mrs. Carolyn Douglass Porterfield, wish to express our heartfelt appreciation for the many acts of kindness, encouraging words, and sympathy shown to us, during our time of bereavement. May God bless each of you.
