Obituary of Mrs. Cher Butler Brown

Cher's beautiful life began on May 6, 1975. She was the daughter of Van Butler, Sr. and Alain Mickens-Jacobs, of West Columbia, South Carolina.

On Saturday, September 24, 2022, God sent His sweet Angels to call our beloved sister, aunt, wife, mother, and grandmother, Cher Butler-Brown, home to glory, where she will forever Rest In Peace.

Cher attended Brookland Cayce High School, and went directly into the workforce, she later started her commercial and residential cleaning business. She also attended Midlands Technical College, while still working within her business.

Cher has always been a child of God, and gave her life to Christ early on at an early age. During her childhood, she was a member of Brookland Baptist Church, and as a younger adult, she became a member of Cedar Creek Community Church.

Cher met and fell in love with the love of her life, Ditrick Brown, 12 years ago. They were united in Holy Matrimony, and with this union, they joined their families, and became blessed with seven beautiful children.

Cher's husband and all of her children and grandchildren were her world. She loved and cherished each and every one of them, and there wasn't anything she wouldn't do for any of them. They all absolutely loved their mother and "Grammy" that her grandchildren called her. Cher was extremely loyal to her family and her friends. Often going out of her way to help others, Cher was always happy and upbeat, extremely friendly, lots of fun, and just got along with everyone. Her beautiful smile, infectious personality, caring and kind demeanor made people gravitate towards her. It's like she never met a stranger and was definitely the "shining star and life of any party!" Cher just had a beautiful presence and a profound effect on others that made everyone love, respect, and adore her. She just had an everlasting beautiful effect on everyone she encountered.

Cher was preceded in death by her mother, Alain Butler.

Mrs. Cher Butler-Brown leaves to cherish the memory of her beautiful smile and sweet spirit: her husband, Ditrick Brown, of Blythewood, SC; five daughters, Siquella (Eugene) Thomas, of Columbia, SC, Saporina (Jaquan) Jackson, of Columbia, SC, Shardae Butler, of Columbia, SC, Shontasia Brown, of Blythewood, SC, and Armani Brown, of Rockhill, SC; two sons, Dimetrick Brown, of Atlanta, GA and Elijah Cobb, of Augusta GA; ten grandchildren, all of Columbia, SC; her father, Van Butler, Sr., of West Columbia, SC; two brothers, Van (Shawn) Butler Jr., of Blythewood, SC and David Jacobs, of Hopkins, SC; two sisters, Doretta (Leviticus) Long, of Columbia, SC and Lenore (Eusebio) Lopez, of Blythewood, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
