On The Wings of Prayer

Just close your eyes and open you heart
And feel our worries and care depart,
Just yield yourself to the Father above
And let Him hold you secure in His love...
For life on earth grows more involved
With endless problems that can't be solved-
But God only asks us to do our best,
Then He will "take over" and finish the rest...
So when you are tired, discouraged, and blue,
There's always one door that is open to you-
And that is the door to 'The House of Prayer'
And you'll find God waiting to meet you there...

Obituary

Ms. Delorez Copeland was born on December 18, 1940, in New York City, New York. She was the youngest child of the late James Copeland and Viola Kenny Copeland.

Ms. Copeland was educated in the public schools of New York City, attending New York City Catholic School. After graduating high school, she attended Community College and earned a degree in Secretarial Studies. Delorez relocated to Sumter, South Carolina in 1973, and joined the Mulberry Baptist Church. She was employed with the Wateree Community Action Agency. After leaving the Wateree Community Action Agency, she decided to continue her education and began employment with Toumey Hospital. It was during this time that she moved to Columbia, South Carolina. She enjoyed reading, board games, and crossword puzzles.

Ms. Copeland leaves to mourn her passing: her daughters, Dorreen Jackson, New York City, Mona Lisa Mitchell, of Columbia, South Carolina, and Dana Gaillard Commander, of Columbia, South Carolina; a son, Cecil Haynes, of Summerville, South Carolina; grandchildren, Anthony Tyrell, Adrian, Ahmad Haynes, Shanntay Copeland, Wilbur Dyer, Nyja Matthews, Syrion Gaillard, Kefni Gaillard, and Demikka Labrador; a special great-grandchild, Kyra Gaillard-Murphy; sister, Jocelyn Copeland Robinson, of Virginia; a host of other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
