Life Is But A Stopping Place

Life is but a stopping place,
 A pause in what's to be,
 A resting place along the road,
 To sweet eternity.
 We all have different journeys,
 Different paths along the way,
 We all were meant to learn some things,
 But never meant to stay.
 Our destination is a place,
 Far greater than we know.
 For some the journey's quicker,
 For some the journey's slow.
 And when the journey finally ends,
 We'll claim a great reward,
 And find an everlasting peace,
 Together with the Lord.

Sonja Yvonne Walker Green, known as Bonnie to her family and friends, was a loving mother, grandmother, daughter, aunt, sister, and friend. She revered the truth and honesty in all things. Born in Columbia, South Carolina, on July 2, 1956, Sonja was the first child of four born to Deacon James Walker and Deaconess Earline Seymour Walker. She departed this life on Wednesday, September 14, 2022.

Sonja graduated from Dreher High School, Class of 1974, in Columbia, South Carolina. She also obtained a bachelor's degree from Limestone College, in Gaffney, South Carolina.

Sonja was married to the late Earlex Green. To this union, they were blessed to have two children, Carlten and Zaneta.

Sonja Green had various jobs. She worked at Wachovia Bank, NA and later as a check processor, and various other duties within the Federal Reserve Bank, of Charlotte/Richmond, until she retired. After retirement, Sonja worked part-time at the Richland County Library and SC Archives.
