

Obituary

Sherrie Ann Smith Murdock was born on March 6, 1958, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Robert Smith and the late Corine Livingston Smith. Sherrie departed this earthly life to join her heavenly father on Monday, September 19, 2022.

She was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. She was a 1976 graduate of Columbia High School. After graduating from Columbia High, Sherrie earned her bachelor's degree in Psychology from the University of South Carolina. Sherrie went on to work in the insurance industry. She was employed with Seibels Bruce and Blue Cross Blue Shield. After many years of working in the insurance industry, Sherrie became employed with Benedict College, in the financial aid office. It was through this office that Sherrie was able to help many young people achieve their goal of attending college. She was also employed with Leevy's Funeral Home, as a funeral attendant for more than 15 years.

Sherrie was a very fun-loving person. She loved to laugh and have a good time. Her laugh was infectious and her smile was contagious. Sherrie never met a stranger.

Sherrie Ann Smith Murdock leaves to cherish her precious memory: two sisters, Jacquelin Walker and Roberta Robinson, both of Columbia, South Carolina; a niece, Anisa Walker, of McKinney, Texas; a nephew, Eric Waller, of Columbia, South Carolina; a host of dear cousins, neighbors, co-workers, and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.
