

Obituary

Mrs. Carrie Lee LaBrew, widow of the late Deacon Robert LaBrew, was born on March 16, 1931, in Eastover, South Carolina. She was the oldest child of Deacon Wilson Morris and Ms. Emma Powell. She was raised by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bessie Powell, of Eastover, South Carolina. She departed this life to be with the Heavenly Father on October 20, 2022.

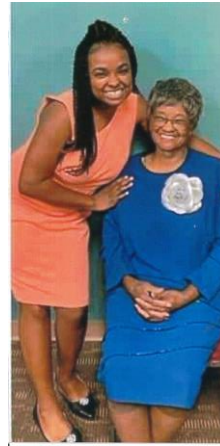

Mrs. LaBrew was educated in the public schools of Richland County, and was a graduate of Webber High School. She was a member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church for 65+ years. Carrie retired from the S.C. Department of Health and Environmental Control (DHEC), after 20 years of service as a Tuberculosis Lab Tech, III. She also worked along side her husband at LaBrew's Shell Service Station for many years.

Mrs. LaBrew was baptized at an early age at Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, and later joined Mt. Zion Baptist Church after marriage. She enjoyed cooking, gardening, sewing, and laughing a lot! She was a faithful member of the Senior Choir, Missionary Society, and the Emma Butler Tent # 141, in Eastover, South Carolina.

In addition to her husband, parents, and grandparents, Carrie was preceded in death by her brothers, Jimmy and Joe Louis Morris, several aunts who were considered as sisters, Idell Wilson, Louise Harris, Flossie Cartman, Marie Powell, Lottie Blue Powell, and Rosie Powell.

Mrs. Carrie LaBrew leaves to mourn her passing: her daughter, Deloris LaBrew; son, William F. LaBrew; grandchildren, Ricky O. LeBrew, Brandon LaBrew, Karington E. Harris, and Denishia Macon; great-granchildren, Trinity O. LaBrew, Braylon and Nykia LaBrew; sisters, Carrie Mae Floyd, of New York and Loretta Nixon; brother, Reverend Julius Morris Wallace, of New York; brother-in-law, Leroy LaBrew; nephews, Alexander (Patricia) Morris, James W. (Andrea) Morris, and Kevin Morris; niece, Tawana (Mike) Thompson; her best friend, Emma Lee Scott; a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, many caring cousins, other loving relatives, and friends, all of whom will miss Mama dearly.

Mother, If I Could Give You...

~Author Unknown

If I could give you diamonds for each tear you cried for me.

If I could give you sapphires for each truth you've helped me see.

If I could give you rubies for the heartache that you've known.

If I could give you pearls for the wisdom that you've shown.

Then you'll have a treasure,
mother, that would mount up to the skies.
That would almost match the sparkle
in your kind and loving eyes.

But I have no pearls, no diamonds,
as I'm sure you're well aware.
So I'll give you gifts more precious;
my devotion, love and care.

Love Always,

Your Children, Deloris and William,
and Grandchildren
