

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*

Obituary

Ms. Hattie Mae Smith was born on November 6, 1954, in Hopkins, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Johnny Hopkins, and the late Leanna Smith. She departed her earthly life on Wednesday, September 28, 2022.

Hattie was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. She was a 1972 graduate of Lower Richland High School. After high school, Hattie moved to Columbia, South Carolina. She gained employment at the University of South Carolina, where she worked until retiring under disability.

She was preceded in death by her brothers, Calvin, Alex, and Benjamin Smith, and one sister, Wilhelmenia Smith.

Ms. Hattie Mae Smith leaves to mourn her passing: her two sons, Tyrone Smith and Dwayne M. (Tracie) Smith, Sr., both of Columbia, South Carolina; daughters, Cleasha Smith, of Columbia, South Carolina and Alberta Smith, of Batesburg, South Carolina; five grandchildren, Tyesha Smith, Briana Montgomery, Mykesha Smith, Dwayne M. Smith, Jr., and Lexi Smith; two brothers, Elkannah Smith, of Wilmington, Delaware and Herbert Smith, of Columbia, South Carolina; two sisters, Rebecca Smith and Carolyn Smith, both of Columbia, South Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
