When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,
 If the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.
 I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
 while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
 I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.
 When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand
 That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand
 The angel said my place was ready in heaven far above
 And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
 But when I walked through Heaven's gate, I felt so much at home
 When God looked down and smiled at me from
 His great golden throne.
 He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you."
 Today my life on earth is past, but here it starts anew
 I promise no tomorrow but today will always last
 And since each day's the same day, there's no longing for the past.
 So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
 For every time, you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.

Obituary

Mr. Louis Williams, Jr., affectionately known as Dino, was born on June 14, 1960, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the second oldest child of the late Margaret Isaac Williams. He departed this life on October 13, 2022 at Prisma Hospital, at the age of 62.

Louis was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. He was a graduate of A.C. Flora High School. Louis was employed with Lizard Thicket, Inc., of Columbia for over 13 years.

He was a very quiet man of few words, but he had a kind word and was very friendly to everyone he met. Louis had interest in many activities, and he was an avid Pittsburg Steelers fan.

Mr. Louis Williams, Jr. leaves mourn his passing: his brother, Freddie Isaac; cousins, Thelma Isaac, Robert Isaac, and Carolyn Black, all of Columbia, South Carolina; a close friend, Jamie Mitchell; a host of other relatives, and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
