On The Wings of Prayer

Just close your eyes and open you heart
And feel our worries and care depart,
Just yield yourself to the Father above
And let Him hold you secure in His love...
For life on earth grows more involved
With endless problems that can't be solved-
But God only asks us to do our best,
Then He will "take over" and finish the rest...
So when you are tired, discouraged, and blue,
There's always one door that is open to you-
And that is the door to "The House of Prayer"
And you'll find God waiting to meet you there...

Obituary

Mr. Tim Ashford was the son of the late O. P. Ashford and Mamie Gadson Cook. He was born in Fairfield County, South Carolina, on November 14, 1939. He quietly slipped away to be with the Lord on November 26, 2022, at 6:41 p.m., at Prisma Health Richland, in Columbia, South Carolina.

Tim was raised and educated in Fairfield County, South Carolina, before moving to Columbia, South Carolina with his mother. He later moved to Harlem, New York, where he lived for 60 years.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his stepfather, Clarence Cook; brother, Odell Cook, and three nieces, Dorothy, Monica, and Wanda.

Mr. Tim Ashford is survived by: two daughters, Yvonne (Herbert) Coleman, of Augusta, Georgia and Pamela Little, of Columbia, SC; two sons, Patrick (Kerneida) Richard and Victor Richard, of Columbia, South Carolina; two sisters, Alberta Hart and Sadie Irving, both of Columbia, South Carolina; one sister-in-law, Olivia Cook, of Jenkinsville, South Carolina; sixteen grandchildren, twenty-eight great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild. A special thank you to his niece, Cheryl Cook who loved him dearly and talked to him at least three times a day, every day. She did this until the end.
