

God's Garden

God looked around his garden,
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you,
And lifted you to rest,
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.

He saw the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb,
So he closed your weary eyelids,
And whispered "Peace be thine".

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

If only I could hug you this tight...

You would know how much I care about you!

Memories

"I've finally found the nerve to say, I'm gonna make a change in my life, Starting here today, I surrender all my love, I never thought I could I'm giving all my love away, And there's only one reason that I would..."

Obituary

God in His infinite wisdom made plans for Mrs. Lisa Bailey to start her new life on the other side. Born on March 26, 1986, in Syosset Hospital, in New York, Lisa was the daughter of Ms. Ruth Ellis and the late Hayward Goodwin, Sr. She departed this life on Sunday, November 13, 2022, surrounded by her family.

Lisa was educated in the public schools of Lexington County, where she received her diploma. Upon graduation, she worked in the school district for a few years, before she met and married Mr. Jason Bailey. They became an instant military family, and traveled extensively throughout the United States. Lisa became a homemaker who lovingly cared for her family.

All who knew Lisa knew that she was a fan of Winnie the Pooh. Even as an adult, she owned a Winnie the Pooh onesie. Lisa had a pleasant spirit, very easy going, always going with the flow. She was a "peacemaker." She allowed her personality to shine through singing and was often referred to as the Karaoke Queen. However, Lisa's real passion was photography. She enjoyed capturing the images of family, so much so that she was the family's resident photographer, LeeLeeB Photography. These are just a few of the imprints that Lisa has left on the hearts of her loved ones.

Those who are waiting on Lisa in heaven are: her father, Mr. Hayward Goodwin, Sr.; her paternal grandparents, Mr. David and Mrs. Viola Goodwin, and her maternal grandfather, Mr. Leon Howard.

Lisa leaves behind: her husband, Mr. Jason Bailey, of Fayetteville, NC; two sons, Mr. Semaj Ellis, of Columbia, SC and Master Julian Bailey, of Fayetteville, NC; her mother, Ms. Ruth Ellis, of West Columbia, SC; her grandmother, Ms. Estelle Howard, of West Columbia, SC; three brothers, Mr. Hayward Goodwin, Jr., Mr. Darrell D. Goodwin, and Mr. Marcell Goodwin, all of Columbia, SC; five sisters, Ms. Desirray Moody and Ms. Yashia Ellis, both of West Columbia, SC, Mrs. Verneta (Reginald) Turnipseed, Ms. Katrina L. Pitts, and Ms. Latoyra Goodwin, all of Columbia, SC; one brother-in-law, Mr. Jermaine (Alicia) Bailey, of Kuwait; mother-in-law, Ms. Kimberly Bailey, of Fayetteville, NC; three uncles, Mr. Wesley (Linda) Goodwin, Mr. Robert (Shirley) Goodwin, and Mr. Alford (Debra) Goodwin, all of Columbia, SC; five uncles, Douglas (Ponzetta) Howard, Leroy and Leon Howard, all of Queens, New York, Ricky (Ann) Howard and Willie (Lavesha) Howard, both of Columbia, South Carolina; six aunts, Ms. Sarah Frances Goodwin, Ms. Geraldine Washington, Ms. Louise Robinson, and Ms. Carolyn Garrick, all of Columbia, SC, Ms. Linda Fuller, of Las Vegas, Nevada, and Ms. Elouise (Alvin) Bracy, of North Carolina; her best friend and three godchildren, Ms. Angela McCoy, Miss Jasael, Miss Ja'Maria, and Master Elijah Lopez-McCoy, all of West Columbia, SC, her niece and nephew with whom she share a special bond, Ms. Ebony Coleman, Ms. Miesha Ellis, and Mr. Malik Moody, all of West Columbia, SC; a host of cousins, other relatives, and friends, all of whom loved her dearly.

Memories

"And when the morning comes, we'll see the sun is not so far, and we can't get much closer to God than where we are...Ooh this feels so crazy, oh this love is blazin', we're so high, walking on cloud nine."
