

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.*

I took His hand when I heard His call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day

To laugh, to love, to work, or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way

I found the peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void

Then fill it with remembered joys

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss

Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much,

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-

God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Obituary

Ms. Eulia Singleton Cohen was born July 14, 1945, in Charleston, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Deacon James Singleton, Sr. and Sarah Ravenell Singleton. She departed this life on Thursday, November 10, 2022.

From an early age, she was a member of Ebenezer A.M.E. Church, in Charleston, South Carolina. She attended the Public Schools of Charleston County, and was a 1963 graduate of Burke High School. She graduated Cum Laude from Rutledge College, where she received her Nursing Assistant Degree. In her early years, she worked as a Dental Assistant. Later, she retired from Midlands Center, as a Nursing Assistant in Columbia, SC.

Eulia was an avid lover of flowers and working in her yard. Whether it was spending time planting or finding projects for people to do, you'd never see her yard unkempt. She had a vivacious personality and loved shopping, dining with her friends and family, having fun, traveling, and dancing. She was so proud of her children and grandchildren, and would beam with pride whenever she spoke about them. She was the biggest cheerleader and supported them in every endeavor of their lives. Her smile and voice would radiate a room and her presence was one you couldn't forget. Eulia's huge heart allowed her to pour into so many people she loved whether it was offering advice or just a call to check in, she was there for you. Anything you needed she would not hesitate to help in any way she could. Her love knew no bounds, and she will be sorely missed by all who cherished her.

Ms. Eulia Singleton Cohen leaves to mourn her passing: her four children, Dionne Cohen Burnell, of Columbia, South Carolina, David (Mae) Cohen III, of McDonough, Georgia, Tekysha Cohen and Lakeysha Cohen, both of Columbia, South Carolina; five grandchildren, Ashley (Larry) Elmore, of Blythewood, South Carolina, Davon (Jasmine) Cohen and Khalilah Cohen, both of Columbia, South Carolina, Kial Cohen and Khira Cohen, both of McDonough, Georgia; her siblings, Jeanette Singleton, Lillie Mae Stanley, Elizabeth S. Berry, Sandra Davis, Edward L. Singleton, Ronald C. Singleton, Joseph Singleton (Otharine), Jannie R. Holt (Reverend Dr. Isaac), Kenneth Singleton, Elaine Ellington, and Bernard M. Singleton; brother-in-law, George Miller, Jr.; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, best friends, and other loving family, and friends, all of whom will never forget her and will miss her dearly.
