I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Obituary

Ms. Mae Duckworth Compton was born on April 30, 1956, in Gulfport Mississippi. She was the only daughter of the late J.B. and Emma Ducksworth. She departed his life on Wednesday, November 2, 2022, at Prisma Health Richland, in Columbia, South Carolina.

Mae, affectionately known by her family as Dorothy, was educated in the public schools of Gulfport, Mississippi. She was a 1974 graduate of Gulfport High School, in Glufport, Mississippi.

She was baptized at Mt. Olive Baptist Church, at an early age with her brother, the late Earl Larry Duckworth, in Gulfport, Mississippi. Dorothy liked cooking out and being with friends, no matter what the occasion was.

Dorothy was a hard worker. She was employed with Master's Cleaners and Arnold's Cleaners. She also worked as a caregiver and private duty sitter before becoming employed with the Columbia Housing Authority. Dorothy worked as a security guard for many years with the Columbia Housing Authority, patrolling the public housing areas. Her last employer was O'Reilly's Auto Part as a transporter, a job that she thoroughly enjoyed.

In addition to her parents, Mae was preceded in death by her husband, Luis Castillo, and her brother, Earl Larry Duckworth.

Ms. Mae Ducksworth Compton leaves to mourn her passing: her son, Marcos Castillo; granddaughters, Ilan and Javian Castillo, all of Florida; a host of caring and special friends, Betty, Cathy, Bae Bae, Tracey, Geraldine, Faye, Sharon, all of whom will miss her dearly, especially Ms. Gloria, whose porch she would sit on to laugh and talk.
