Acknowledgement

We, the family of Mr. Macky Gibbs, would like to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude to all who have shown comforting expressions of love, sympathy, and prayers, during the passing of our loved one. Our hearts will always be grateful for your kindness, as we pray for a special blessing to be bestowed upon each and everyone of you.

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning,
that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you, dearly,
in death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go alone;
For part of us went with you
the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
the Chain will link again.
We love and miss you ever so much.*

Life's Reflection of Mr. Macky Gibbs

Macky Gibbs, affectionally known as Jack or Mack Jack, was born April 15, 1952, in Richland County, South Carolina. He departed this life on Thursday, November 24, 2022, at Prisma Health Richland Hospital, in Columbia, SC. He was the son of the late Louis Bo Gibbs and Mayzola Bush Gibbs.

Macky was educated in the public school system of Richland School District II. After completing school, he worked several jobs which included, E. D. Sauls Construction Company, Carolina Ceramics, Richland District II, and Great Southern Homes. Macky also worked in the maintenance field for the Jacobs Family and others in the Pontiac Business Community. Like his father, Macky was an early riser so he would get up several hours before hand to prepare for his workday. His favorite song was "Better Days Are Coming Bye and Bye," and you would hear him singing it many mornings when most of Gibbs Road Community was still asleep.

Macky was a beloved member of the Green Hill Baptist Church, and attended Sunday School and supported the Men's Ministry.

Macky also loved to have a good time. His hobbies included: fishing, swimming, baseball, and attending family gatherings. He also loved dancing, and was always the life of any party as he did the James Brown.

In addition to his parents, Macky was preceded in death by five brothers and four sisters.

Macky leaves to cherish his precious memory: a devoted wife of 38 years, Brenda Gibbs, of Pontiac, SC; two brothers, Reverend Dr. Johnny (Henrietta) Gibbs and Jessie (Vermell) Gibbs, both of Pontiac, SC; three sisters, Margie Blanding, Evelyn Ware, and Patsy Hargrove, all of Pontiac, SC; two brothers-in-law, James Portee, of Pontiac, SC and Stephen Blair, of Dallas, Texas; two godchildren, Jammie JP Portee and Jordan Portee, of Columbia, SC; two special nieces, Carolyn (Willie) Samuel, of Pontiac, SC and April Ware, of Columbia, SC; one uncle, Author Bush, one aunt, Juanita Boykin; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives, and friends, all of who will miss him dearly.
