LadyBug... LadyBug... LadyBug...

The day God called you home and you gained your angel wings. The tears flowed as a piece of us left with you. Although, we long for your presence, we are not selfish as we know you're no longer in pain. We are reminded of the love and memories you left that will remain with us to cherish.

Yes, it's hard and painful, but you will forever be in our hearts.

As we remember your laugh, the songs you sang, the words of wisdom you shared, your gentle touch, your beautiful smile, and above all your everlasting love. You will never be forgotten and always just a thought away.

You took our love with you, but one day our souls will join you.

Obituary

“Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of the Lord.”

Matthew 25:23

Mrs. Lucille Greaves, affectionately known as Miss Cille, was born on August 29, 1934, in Mullins, South Carolina, to Jaro and Bessie Brunson Kelly. She was one of eleven children.

She was a member of Ebenezer A.M.E. Church, in Mullins, South Carolina. After graduating from Palmetto High School, Mullins, South Carolina, she moved to Brooklyn, New York. She was employed for 30 years with the Manhattan Psychiatric Center’s Nutrition Department. Her hobbies were listening to music, doing puzzles, and coloring with Peyton. Her favorite color was blue and her favorite song was, “I Got 49 Women and All I Need Is One More.”

In addition to her parents, Miss Cille was preceded in death by her husband, Ulric Greaves; nine siblings, James T. Kelly, Jaro Louis Kelly, Ila Mae Reed, Minnie Lee Kelly, Marie Brown, Elizabeth Ellerbe, Eloris Mims, and Louis Goodwin.

Mrs. Lucille Greaves leaves to cherish her memory: her loving brother, John Daniel (Geraldine) Kelly; caregivers, Andre Dawkins (nephew), Hattie Sutton, Bessie Richard, Rochelle Jones-Davis, Florence Richard, and Beverly Carter; a host of nieces, nephews, and friends, all of whom share in the family’s grief caused by her departure, but rejoice that she is resting with the Lord.
