I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.*

Obituary

Ms. Irene Denise Morning, Neicy, as she was affectionately called, was born on January 6, 1965, in Bronx, New York. She was the oldest daughter of Joan Faust and Charles Thompson. She departed this life on November 7, 2022.

Neicy was educated in the public schools of Middle Island, New York, and was a 1983 graduate of Longwood High School. In her teenage years, she was a camp counselor and a basketball player. She was employed as a dedicated worker to the Ridge A House Developmental Center, of Long Island, New York, where she aided mentally challenged adults for over 20 years.

She was baptized at Faith Baptist Church, in New York, where she participated in the young adult choir. She enjoyed arts and crafts. She would make arrangements for all occasions.

She was preceded in death by fathers, Charles Thompson, Charley Jackson, and Henry Faust, and sister, Karen Allen.

Neicy leaves to mourn her passing: her husband, Rodney Morning; her daughter, Korrealle Morning; granddaughter, JáVaii Ellis; grandson, JáVion Carlyle; mother, Joan Faust; brother, Rodney Thompson; sister, Kim Thompson; niece, Natia Allen; goddaughter and niece, Raven Brown; six nephews, Dashawn, Andrell, D'Andre, Shailyn Allen, Emanuel Thompson, and Terrance Lassasier; great-nephew, Nasir Allen; a host of other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
