

Brother,

My memories are what I have left,
and a lesson I will not forget.
The time has come when time is no more
and all that's left was once before.
The memories so dear and true,
those memories of me and you.
Although we fell and stumbled at times,
all those hills were necessary climbs.
All the times when your heart shined through are the greatest memories I have of you.
I will always remember you, brother of mine.
In my heart I will keep you, so I will be fine.
I will go forward with my head up high.
It might be hard, I cannot lie.
But in my heart you will be,
moving forward, just you with me.

*Brother, I love you!
Kiss mom and grandma for me.*

Acknowledgement

Words of thanks seem so inadequate, for all the kindness that has been bestowed upon our family. The Oree family would like to thank you for the encouraging visits, the comforting calls, the lovely cards, the beautiful floral arrangements, and the sincere words of solace. We are finding strength in knowing earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. May God bless you richly for blessing us.

Obituary of Mr. Trevordion Oree

Mr. Trevordion Oree, Travis, as he was affectionately called, was born on March 13, 1984, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Teresa Oree and the late Larry Phillips. He departed his life on October 24, 2022.

Mr. Oree was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina, where he attended W.J. Keenan High School. Mr. Oree was baptized at an early age, at New Ebenezer Baptist Church, in Columbia, South Carolina.

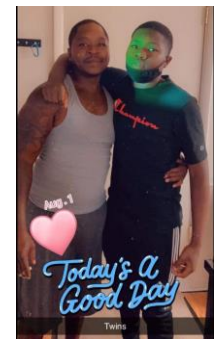

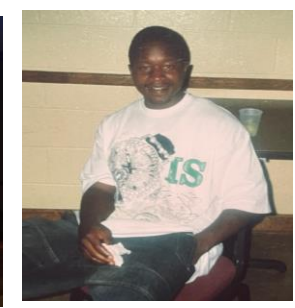

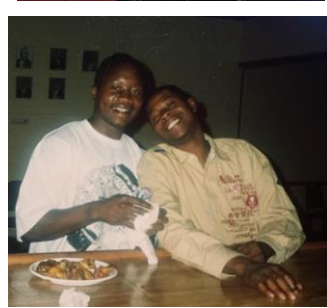

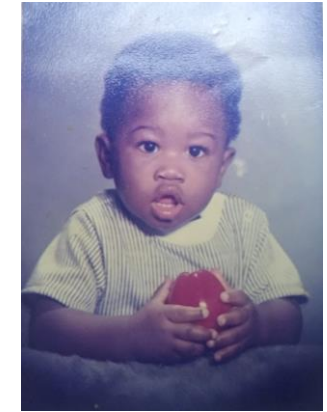

He enjoyed mechanical work, especially on motor vehicles. Mr. Oree would disassemble an item completely, and put it back together just to show you he could do it. Travis would brighten the room with his infectious smile (those dimples), his laughter, and love for everyone.

In addition to his parents, Teresa Oree and Larry Phillips, Travis was preceded in death by his son, Javon Simpson maternal grandmother, Catherine Oree, and uncle, Marquis Mitchell.

Mr. Oree leaves to mourn his passing: a son, Trevor Dion Oree Jr., of Columbia, South Carolina; a daughter, Nevaeh Mosby of Columbia, South Carolina; twins, Leyonnah and Israel Oree-McCornell, of Virginia; bonus daughter, Heavenly McCormell, of Virginia; his brother, Russell Oree, of Columbia, South Carolina; aunts, Dr. Lashawnda Hall, of Blythewood, South Carolina, Tina Oree, and Constance Oree, both of Columbia, South Carolina; four nephews, one great-nephew, one great-niece, many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
