A Poem To Our Mom

Weep not for me though I am gone, into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long,
upon my soul's sweet flight
I am at peace, my soul's at rest,
there is no need for tears.
For with your love I was so blessed,
for all those many years.
There is no pain, I suffer not,
the fear is now all gone.
Put now these things out of your thoughts,
in your memory I'll live on.
Remember not my fight for breath,
remember not the strife.
Please do not dwell upon my death,
but celebrate my life.

Obituary

Mrs. Juanita Wilson Dorch, affectionately known as “Big Momma,” “Grandma,” and “Grams,” was born on Jan. 11, 1930, in Lee County, S.C., to Eligah Wilson and Louise Dow Wilson. She departed this life on December 23, 2022, in Columbia, S.C.

Mrs. Dorch was a proud alumna of Booker T. Washington High School, in Columbia, S.C. She was employed for many years at Columbia’s Dorn Veterans Affairs Medical Center, where she served as a nurse’s assistant.

Upon her retirement from the Dorn VA Medical Center, Mrs. Dorch continued her life of service by volunteering at the Greater St. Luke Baptist Church, where she was a faithful member for years. She was active in the church’s Culinary Ministry, Senior Ministry, and the Pulpit Aid Ministry.

In her spare time, Mrs. Dorch loved to bake various foods, especially desserts. One could have also found her crocheting and spending time with her family and friends. Her kindness, devotion to God, sense of humor, and quick wit were treasured by all who knew and loved her.

Mrs. Dorch was happily married to Mr. Lang Dorch, until his untimely passing in 1995. They were blessed with three children: Barbara D. Clark, Jacqueline D. Mozie, and Anthony R. Dorch.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her brother, James Wilson; and her daughter, Barbara D. Clark.

Mrs. Dorch leaves to mourn her passing: two children, Jacqueline D. (David) Mozie, of Columbia, S.C. and Anthony R. (Rebecca) Dorch, of Williston, S.C.; a brother-in-law, Johnathan (Doretha) Dorch, of Delray, Fla.; seven grandchildren, Nicole Mozie-Chouloute, Davette Mozie, Kiewan Dorch, Iwai (Amanda) Clark, Kimani Clark, Zakiya Dorch, and Dante Mozie; seven great-grandchildren, two great-great grandchildren, a host of other relatives and friends, all of whom will miss her greatly.
