

“I GLO”

By: Margarita Bibbins

Don't cry for me, let my memories shine bright as those tears flow.

Think of all the fun we had,
then smile
and say, “that GLO!”

I GLO when the times were good and fun with family and friends, I know.

And when the times are dark as night remember..I STILL GLO!

Remember, when the days are dark and there's nowhere else to go,

I'm always up here; among the stars
look up, I'm here I GLO!

Letter from Sisters

Life will never be the same now that you're gone. Every time we try to think about you nothing registers. We'll never forget our long talks. Walking around seems so unreal, but we know you're here with us. You are what keeps us going. It's "Glo's" world!

Acknowledgement

We, the family of the late Raysean James Jenkins, would like to express our sincere appreciation for all of the kind expressions of sympathy, during this very hard and painful time. We appreciate all the love and support from our family, church family, and friends. Losing our son/brother has changed us forever. Please keep us in your sincere prayers as we try our best to live these days without Raysean. Your faith strengthens our faith, your hope helps strengthens our hope, and your love has helped the healing process of our hearts. We thank God for sending special angels our way. May God continue to shower you with his richest blessings over your life.

Reflections of His Life

"My health may fail, and my spirit may grow weak, but God remains the strength of my heart; he is mine forever." Psalm 73:26 NLT

Raysean James Jenkins was born on February 14, 2001 in Columbia, South Carolina, to James and Rashawna Adams Jenkins. He was James' youngest son and Rashawna's and James' only son. She always called him her "forever valentine's gift."

Raysean was a single young man and never married. He was known to some of his friends as "Glo," but to his family he was just Ray.

Raysean was a smart, intelligent, and respectable young man who always looked out for his family. He was a member of Bible Way Church of Atlas Road.

Raysean served on the Media Ministry at church and many would say he was good at catching "the shot" at his young age in high school. People would often say, "that's a talented young brother!"

He was a big brother to his two sisters and always had their back no matter what. Ray always looked out for them. He was that kind of big brother!

Raysean was educated in Richland School District Two. He graduated from Ridge View High School, Class of 2019. He played football for a little while, but his heart quickly fell in love with basketball management and helping the team. He was a part of the 2018 and 2019 champion basketball teams as a manager.

Raysean received acceptance to Hampton University, in Hampton, Virginia and Midlands Technical College, in Columbia, South Carolina. Raysean started classes at Midlands Tech and decided to take a break. He recently returned to school, graduating with his CDL Class A certification from Midlands Technical College. Unfortunately, his parents had to pick up his official certification in their son's honor due to his passing.

Raysean was preceded in death by his grandfather, James Anderson Jenkins, six great-grandparents, six great-uncles, five great-aunts, and his godbrother, Reaqwon Garrick.

Raysean leaves to celebrate his life and cherish his loving memory: his loving Dad and Mom, James and Rashawna Adams Jenkins; his brother, James T. Jenkins; his sisters, Aviance N. Jenkins and Quayanna L. Jenkins, of Columbia, SC; his grandma, Judith E. Jenkins, of Newport News, VA; his grandpa, Cato Adams, of Boston, MA; his grandma (Mema), Shelley L. Moss, of Boston, MA; his aunts, Brianna and Jada Adams, his Uncle, Zachary Adams, all of Boston, MA; his special family members, Chiquita Sosa and Alysha James, both of Columbia, SC; Master (MAN) Adams and Shannon (Shanny) Adams, both of Boston, MA, Donovan Gause and Jalen Jones, both of Columbia, SC, and Thalia (TT) Bibbins, of Navarre, FL; his godfather, Frederick H. Garrick II, of Columbia, SC; his godaunt, Retresha Kilgore, of Boston, MA; his bestfriends, Jeremiah Poole and Nigel Jones, both of Columbia, SC; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
