

Beautiful Soul, Fly High

In the arms of the Lord gracing Heaven's sky.

*Amongst the angels giving God His praise
Now that you have gained your wings for the rest of your days!*

We were blessed to have you for 91 beautiful years, now its time for us to give God His cheers!

We thank Him for allowing us to love you for so long,

And for the memories of your favorite song!

("Wrapped up, Tied Up, Tangled Up")

We thank you Granny, for the lessons that you have taught us,

*And for the love that you gave.
Even during the times when we misbehaved!*

So many memories that we will hold deep in our hearts, knowing that your unwavering love will never depart.

*Though we may be sad, and we may cry,
We know that you had a Beautiful Soul
that had to Fly High!

Obituary
of
Mrs. Willie Mae Jones

Mrs. Willie Mae Jones was born on March 28, 1931, in Orangeburg County, South Carolina to Roland and Cleola Corbett. Our beloved matriarch departed this earthly life to be with her heavenly Father and reunited with her late husband Cecil Jones, Sr. on December 27, 2022.

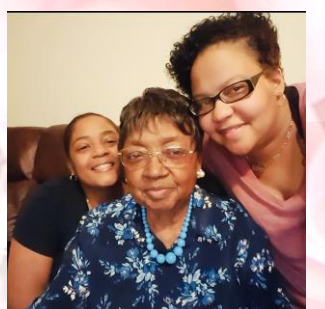

At an early age, she accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and savior and joined her family's church, New Samaria Missionary Baptist Church, in Springfield, South Carolina before relocating to Cayce, South Carolina. After relocating to Cayce, South Carolina, she joined Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church. She faithfully served as a member of Mt. Zion's Usher Board for over 60 years and remained a member until her passing. She instilled her love for God and her unwavering faith into the lives of her children. She remained strong in this faith until the Lord called her home.

Willie Mae was educated in the public schools of Orangeburg County, South Carolina. She went on to serve many years as an employee of Lexington County Public Schools, before retiring to become a homemaker.

In addition to her parents and her husband, she was preceded in death by three sisters, Neressa Amiker, Winza Lee Mack, and Mary Ellen Jackson; one brother, David Corbett; one granddaughter, Santa' "Devay" Jones; a great-grandson, Adam Jones, and a great-granddaughter, Sloane Kathleen Jones.

Ms. Willie Mae Jones leaves to cherish her precious memory: three sons, Cecil Jones, Jr. (Kathleen), Lonnie Jones (Lendora), and Quintin L. Jones (Kathe), one brother, Ernie Corbett; one sister, Idella Simpkins; a godson, Michael Harris; a special cousin, Eunice Smalls; nine grandchildren, thirteen great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild, a host of loving nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
