

*To Those I Love and
To Those Who Love Me*

When I am gone release me; let me go.

I have so many things to see and do.

You must not tie yourself to me with tears,

Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love – you can only guess

How much you gave me in happiness.

I thank you for the love you each have shown.

But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So, grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must;

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It's only for a while that we must part,

So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.

So if you need me, call, I will come.

Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near;

And if you listen with your heart you will hear

All of my love around you, soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and say

"Welcome Home."

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Ms. Brendolyn I. Moore, wish to thank each of you for the many loving and wonderful acts of kindness rendered during the passing of our loved one. May God bless each of you with His grace and mercy.

Psalm 121

I lift up my eyes to the hills-- where does my help come from? My help comes from the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth. He will not let your foot slip-- he who watches over you will not slumber; indeed, he who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep. The LORD watches over you-- the LORD is your shade at your right hand; the sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night. The LORD will keep you from all harm-- he will watch over your life; the LORD will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore.
