God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be
He wrapped His arms around you,
And whispered, "Come to Me."
With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer
And saw you fade away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

Obituary
of
Mrs. Lillie Lee Reese Pearson

For no one is casted off by the Lord forever. Though he brings grief, he will show compassion, so great is his unfailing love. For he does not willingly bring affliction or grief to anyone.

Mrs. Lillie Lee Reese Pearson was born on March 8, 1936, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Gonzales Reese, Sr. and Eula Chestnut Reese. Lillie departed this life on Sunday, December 25, 2022, at her loving home.

She confessed Christ at an early age. Lillie was a faithful member of Red Hill Baptist Church.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Willie Lee Pearson; her brothers, Will Reese, Roosevelt Reese, and Gonzales Reese, Jr; her sister, Ethel Reese; one grandson, Joseph Green, and one daughter-in-law, Just ine Brown Pearson.

Lillie touched many hearts and was truly loved and respected by all she encountered. She will be remembered by her family and friends with fond memories. During her 23 years at Tapp's Famous Foundation Room, she baked an estimated 9,588,600 corn sticks. It was said that once you tasted Lillie's corn stick you were hooked for life.

Those left to cherish her precious memory: two daughters, Patricia Green, of Columbia, South Carolina and Lorette (Gene) Huggins, of Columbia, South Carolina; three sons, Willie (Josie) Pearson, Jr., of Eastover, South Carolina, Josph (Kathy) Pearson, of Columbia, South Carolina, and Melvin (Ethel) Pearson, of Columbia, South Carolina; two brothers, Andrew (Babette) Reese, of Augusta, Georgia and Allen (Mary) Reese, of Columbia, South Carolina; nine grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
