Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*

Obituary
of
Mr. Herman Walker

Mr. Herman Walker was born on March 30, 1929, in St. Matthews, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Clemon C. Walker, Sr. and Mrs. Bertha Lewis Walker. He was called home to be with the Lord, his Savior, on Saturday, December 24, 2022.

Herman was educated in the public schools of Calhoun and Lexington Counties. He later attended Palmer College and then received his bachelors degree in Criminal Justice at the University of South Carolina.

Being raised in a Christian home, Herman committed his life to Christ at an early age, and became a member of the Pleasant Hill Baptist Church. Later in life, he joined Greenview First Baptist Church, where he was a dedicated member for many years.

Herman was a Korea-Vietnam War Veteran. After retiring from the United States Army, he worked as the chief of security at the Midlands Center. He also spent many years working at Leevy's Funeral Home.

He was preceded in death by: his wives, Pearlyne and Helen; daughter, Mary; sister, Burnice; and brothers, Clemon, Jr., Alphonzo, Earnest, and Benjamin.

Those who are left to share the joy and hold the memories of his life are: two children, Berta Udene Walker, of Columbia, South Carolina and Larry Dean (Gwen) Walker, of Gaston, South Carolina; bonus children, Cynthia (Wilson) Rowson and Teresa Holmes, both of Columbia, South Carolina; adopted daughter, Barbara Palmer; adopted son, Timothy Trapp; granddaughters, Kimberlee (Shawn) Barnes, of Lexington, South Carolina and Aja Walker, of Columbia, South Carolina; four great-grandchildren, D'Aja Lyne James, Darren Herman James, Zora Sybil Reign Barnes, and Grayson Wages; bonus grandchildren, Cortney (Jake) Wages, Clay Rowson, and Austin Taylor; two sisters, Gladys (Calvin) Ferguson, of Detroit, Michigan and Margaret (Courtney) Williams, of Swansea, South Carolina; a brother, Raymond (Annie Belle), of Decatur, Georgia; a host of nieces, nephews, other sorrowing relatives, the Harmony family, Heart of Hospice, family and friends, all of whom will always love and remember him.
