

Obituary

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Fleming Wright, affectionately known as Noodle, was born on September 30, 1945, in Florence, South Carolina. She was the second oldest child of the late Holton A. Fleming, Sr. and Margaret L. Shaw. She departed this life on Tuesday, November 29, 2022.

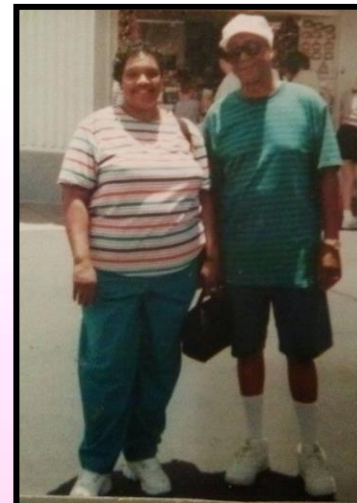

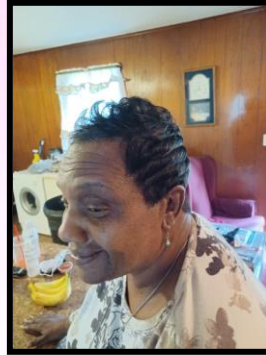

Mrs. Wright was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. She was a 1964 graduate of C.A. Johnson High School. She was employed with Midlands Health and Rehabilitation, formerly known as Magnolia Manor, where she retired after 32 years.

Mrs. Wright was baptized at an early age and later became a member of Bible Way Piedmont, in Columbia, South Carolina. She enjoyed cooking, sewing, and singing.

In addition to her parents, Sarah was preceded in death by her husband, Charles Wesley Wright; brother, Holton A. Fleming, Jr.; and sisters, Delores Ann Cleveland (Bishop) and Rosa Lee Darden (Joe).

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Fleming Wright leaves to mourn her passing: her sons, Michael, Carlos, Brian, and Mario; sister, Margaret Elaine Fleming-Harris, of Euclid, Ohio; aunts, Eloise Fleming and Dorothy Fleming, both of Florence, South Carolina; eighteen grandchildren, five great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
