Poem of Life

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys, d ifferent paths
along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay...

Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.

And when the journey finally ends, We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace, Together with the Lord.

Mr. Sean Evers Hopkins

Obituary

Mr. Sean Evers Hopkins was born on October 5, 1963, to Leroy and Mamie B. Hopkins. He was a much-loved father, grandfather, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend. He transitioned from life into eternity on Tuesday, January 10, 2023. Though our hearts are filled with grief, our blessed consolation is in knowing that he is at home with his beloved Heavenly Father. Though he is no longer with us physically, he will live on in our hearts and memories always.

He was educated in the public schools of Richland County South Carolina, and was a proud graduate of Dreher High School, class of 1981. After graduating, he attended Midlands Technical College and received his certification in Paint and Autobody. He was most recently employed with Trane.

Our loving father and friend was so full of life and spread happiness wherever he went. He had a very special love in his heart for his family and friends. He loved his children and grandchildren with all of his heart. Everyone who knew him loved him and could always count on him to lend a helping hand. He enjoyed fishing, hunting, fast cars, motorcycles, and riding horses.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Leroy and Mamie B. Hopkins.

Sean's most prize accomplishment was his family. He leaves to mourn his passing: three loving children, Taya Williams, Brentrez Counts, and Mya Sumter; two grandchildren, Haley Williams and Ava Counts; three brothers, Leroy Vernon (Beverly Ann) Hopkins, Jonathan (Vivian) Hopkins, and Eric Hopkins, Sr.; a host of nieces, and nephews, other loving relatives, and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

Acknowledgement

We, the family of the late Sean Evers Hopkins, would like to thank each of you for your thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. We pray that God blesses each of you in a very special way.
