*They say memories are golden, maybe that's true
I never wanted memories, I only wanted you and only you
A million times I cried*

*If love alone could have saved you, you never would have left.
In life I love you dearly, in death I love you still
You were my world.*

*In my heart you hold a place no one else can fill
If tears could build a stairway and heartache make a lane, I'd walk the path to heaven and bring you back again.*

*Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us back one by one, the chain will link again.
Love your Mommy*

Obituary

MaLani Sophia Ortiz-Robinson was born October 7th, 2022, at 12:16 pm at Prisma Baptist, in Columbia, Sc. She was the daughter of Nikayla Miller and Louis Ortiz-Medina. Our hearts and minds are extremely heavy, on Friday, January 13, 2023, she was called home.

MaLani was such a beautiful girl, she was full of life and the absolute sweetest baby you could ever meet. We loved everything about her, her smile, her laughs, her cries, and coo's. She was super mesmerizing, and was also mesmerized with everything. We absolutely loved her clinginess. She loved to watch us and would just smile and we loved that. We could be having a bad day and her smiles would make us forget about the bad day. She was our mini best friend. Our sweet girl is what we always called her. It's so much we can say about her, but most importantly she loved kisses. She brought joy to so many. MaLani will forever be in our hearts.

MaLani's last memories are left to be cherished by: her mother, Nikayla Miller; father, Louis Ortiz; her older siblings, Aubriana and Kai; her grandmothers and great-grandmothers, Gillia Bazemore,, Lillie Mae David, Earline Little, and, Maria Ortiz; her grandfather, Roddie Little; aunts LaTonya Bright, Kimberly Janha, Alexius Robinson, and Lydia Ortiz; uncles, Kaywhon Douglas, Akealion Douglas, LaQuan Robinson, Ramon Ortiz, George Ortiz, Saddam Ortiz, and Carlos Ortiz; cousins, Deasia Robinson, Alaysia Robinson, Chris Robinson, Aislinn, and Matheo, and a host of caring family friends. We love and miss you Lani, sleep peacefully our sweet girl.
