

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

*If tears could build a stairway,
and memories a lane.
I would walk right up to Heaven and bring you back again.*

*No farewell words were spoken,
No time to say "Goodbye".
You were gone before I knew it,
and only God knows why.*

*My heart still aches with sadness,
and secret tears still flow.
What it meant to love you -
No one can ever know.*

*But now I know you want me
to mourn for you no more;
To remember all the happy times
life still has much in store.*

*Since you'll never be forgotten,
I pledge to you today~
A hollowed place within my heart is where you'll always stay.*

Obituary

of

Reverend Dr. William George Boyles, Jr. was born on November 29, 1945, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the son of the late William George Boyles, Sr. and Lillian Boyles. Dr. Boyles departed this life on Wednesday, February 1, 2023, at Opus Post-Acute Rehabilitation.

Dr. Boyles was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. He was a graduate of C.A. Johnson High School. Dr. Boyles earned his bachelor's degree from Benedict College, a masters degree from the University of South Carolina, and his doctoral degree from Lutheran Theological Seminary.

Dr. Boyles served in the United States Marine Corp. He served as the Pastor of Welch Zion Baptist Church and Mt. Carmel Missionary Baptist Church. Before becoming Pastor, Dr. Boyles served as a faithful member and Deacon of Zion Chapel Baptist Church #1 and as Associate Minister of Zion Chapel Baptist Church #1. He was employed with the family owned business., George Boyles Construction Company.

Dr. Boyles was preceded in death by his wife, Celestine Boyles; brother, Bobby Boyles; and sister Mary Boyles Moultrie.

Reverend Dr. William George Boyles, Jr. leaves to mourn his passing: his sons, Marcus Boyles and Corey Boyles, both of Columbia, South Carolina; a sister, Samara Cooper, of Camden, South Carolina; four grandchildren, Antwon Tucker, Antonio Tucker, Corey Boyles, Jr, and La'Maure Boyles; a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
