Obituary

Mother Joann Footman was born March 5, 1946, in Columbia, South Carolina to the Dorothy Mae Hambrick and Silas Hambrick, Sr. She departed this earthly life on Wednesday, February 1, 2023, at Prisma Baptist Hospital, surrounded by love ones.

She was educated in the Richland County Public School System. She was a dedicated and devoted worker, where she retired after 30 years of service from Master Cleaners. She was united in matrimony with Thomas Edward Footman.

Mother Footman was a devoted member and was honored as a Mother of the church of St. Peter Baptist Church. She enjoyed spending precious time with her family and friends. She was a beloved mother, supporter, and nurturer, who always had trust in her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by: her husband, Thomas Edward Footman; daughter, Patricia Mignon Moore; three sisters, Dorothy Elizabeth O'Neal, Barbara Jean Wright, and Lottie Bell Poindexter-James; three brothers, Silas Hambrick Jr., Anthony Clay Wright, and Christopher Wright.

Mother Joann Footman leaves to cherish fond and precious memories are her three children: sons, Edwin F. (Gina) Hambrick and Andre S. (Tracy) Hambrick; daughter, Valencia S. Footman, all of Columbia, SC; sisters Pamela (David) Burton, Debra A. Hambrick, both of Columbia, SC, and Fannie D. Hardin, of North Plainfield, NJ; sister- in-law, Valerie Hambrick, of Columbia, SC; brother, Rupert (Sylvia) Jones, of Columbia, SC; four grandchildren, three great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, many loving relatives, and friends.

Hcknowledgement

We, the family of Mother Joann Hambrick Footman, would like to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude to all who have shown comforting expressions of love, sympathy, and prayers, during the passing of our loved one. Our hearts will always be grateful for your kindness, as we pray for a special blessing to be bestowed upon each and every one of you.
