

To My Special Grandad

*They say there is a reason
And they say that time will heal, but neither time nor reason will change the way I feel.
A thousand words won't bring you back,
I know because I've tried,
Neither will a thousand tears,
I know because I've cried, So let me tell you something,
so there won't be no doubt, your so wonderful to think of,
but so hard to be without*

Obituary of Sergeant James Frink

Sergeant James Frink was born on November 29, 1943, in Chadbourne, North Carolina. He was the son of the late Vander and Dorothy Frink. He entered into eternal rest on Monday, February 6, 2023.

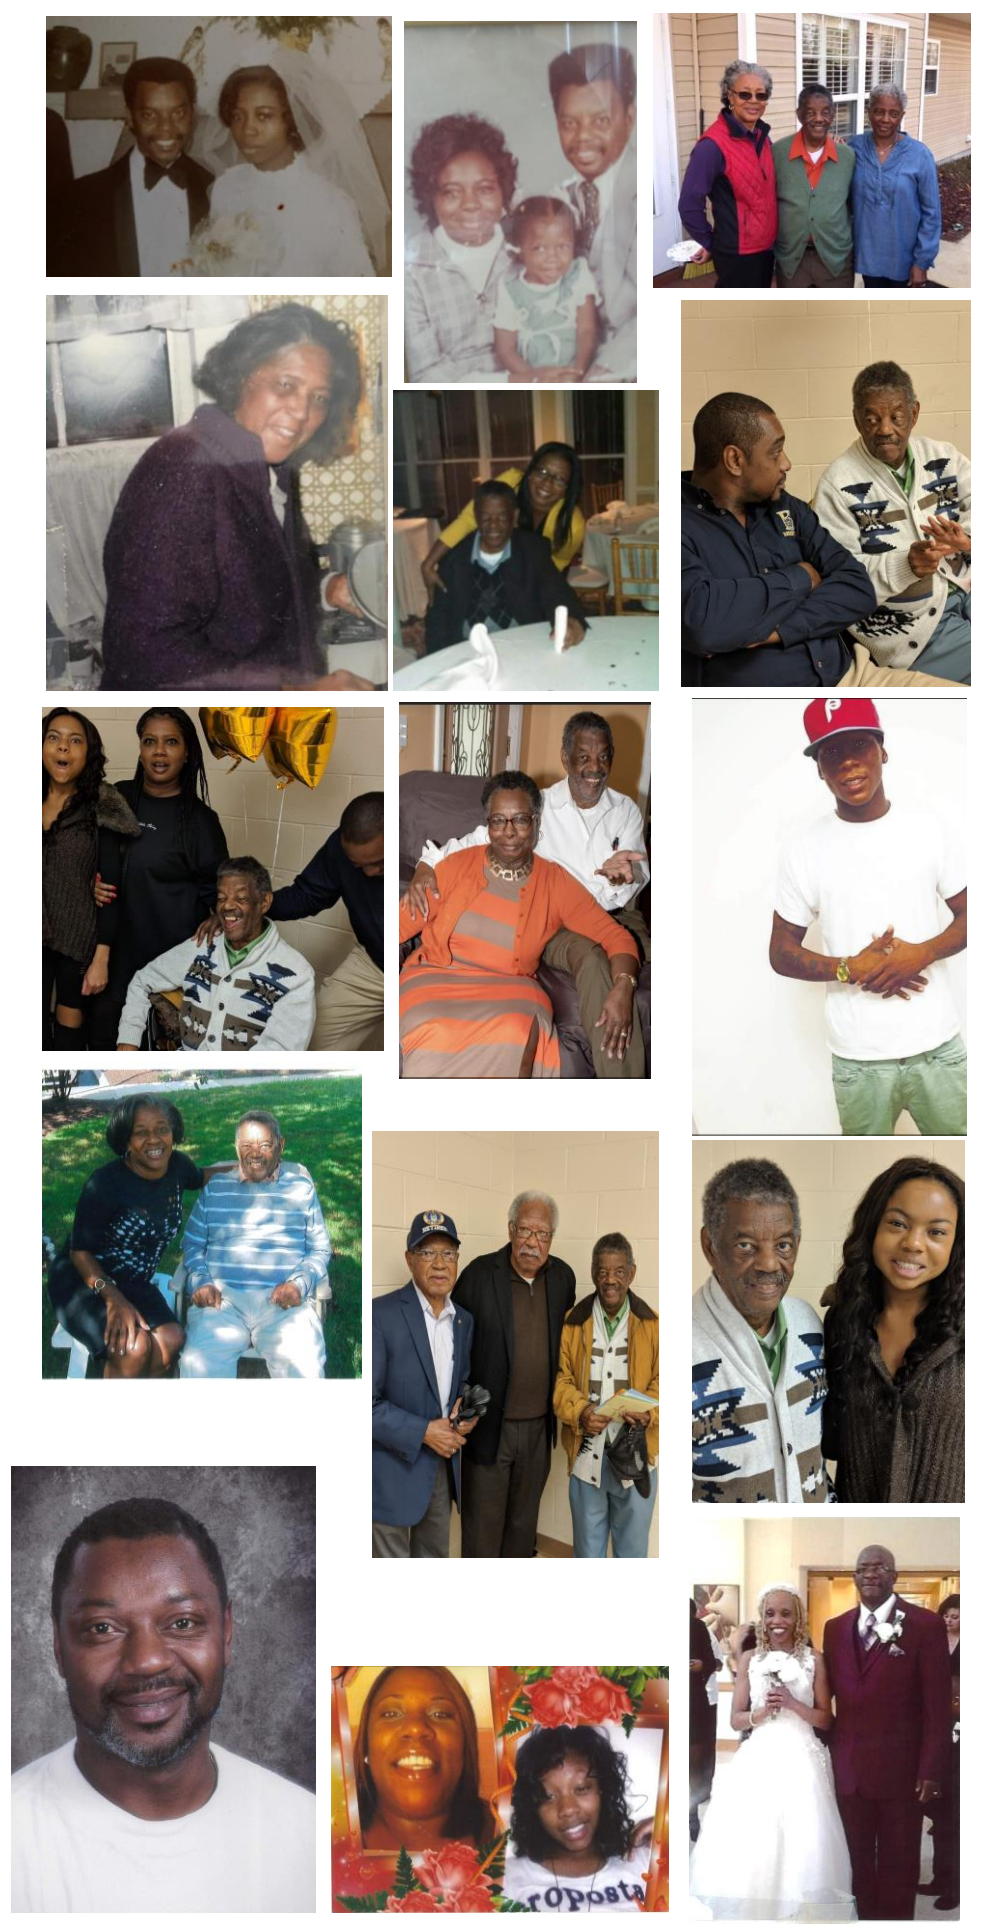

He graduated from Chestnut Consolidated High School, class of 1963. After graduation, he moved to Trenton, New Jersey. He enlisted in the United States Army, where he served in the Vietnam War and was honorably discharged. He retired from the South Carolina National Guard after many years of service.

On April 1, 1972, he was united in holy matrimony to his soulmate of 50 years, Mary McGraw Frink. To this union they were blessed with two children, Kamelle and Kenneth Frink.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Charlie and Julia Gore; and a grandson, David Randall, Jr.

Sergeant James Frink leaves to cherish his precious memory: his loving wife, Mary McGraw Frink; his children, David Randall (Patricia), Angela Randall and Paula Bellamy, all of Trenton, New Jersey, Melissa (Earl) Foskey, of Virginia, Kamelle Frink and Kenneth Frink, both of Columbia, South Carolina; two uncles, Howard (Diane) Gore and Fred (Rose) Gore, both of Columbia, South Carolina; three sisters, Rachel Washington, of Austin, Texas, Vanester Evans and Lillian (HesKeith) Myler of Little River, South Carolina; three nephews; three nieces; fifteen grandchildren; a host of great-grandchildren; a best buddy, his great-grandson, Nyair Jhace Davis; a host of other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
