

*Our lives go on without you
But nothing is the same
We have to hide our heartache
When someone speaks your name*

*Sad are the hearts that love you
Silent are the tears that fall
Living here without you is the hardest part of all*

*You did so many things for us
Your heart was kind and true
And when we needed someone
We could always count on you*

*The special years will not return
When we are together
But with the love in our hearts
You walk with us forever*

Obituary of Mrs. Annie Mae Harrington

I fought the good fight; I have finished my course. I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Timothy 4:7-8 KJV

Mrs. Annie Mae Harrington, 79, of Columbia, South Carolina was born on January 5, 1944. She was the daughter of the late Manson and Isadora Tillman. She departed this life and was called home to eternal rest on Saturday, January 28, 2023.

Mrs. Harrington was a graduate of C. A. Johnson High School, class of 1963, and attended Waverly's Beauty School. She later graduated with an Associate's Degree from Midlands Technical College in Early Childhood Development, class of 2009. She met her loving husband Army CSM John Harrington, Jr. and was blessed with two children, Audrey and John. Their marriage lasted 37 years until his demise in 2002.

Mrs. Harrington was reared in a Christian home and accepted Christ at an early age, where she joined Greenview First Baptist Church. Later in life, she fellowshipped with Mt. Nebo Baptist Church, in Eastover, SC.

Mrs. Harrington was a Cosmetologist for over 40 years, serving greater Columbia as the Owner/Operator of Ann's Beauty Salon bringing joy and good looks to the masses. "If you look good, you feel good," was the motto that she embodied and shared with her clientele. She encouraged family and friends to stand up, stand out, and be noticed. Also, she inspired others to live with dignity, grace, and compassion for one another.

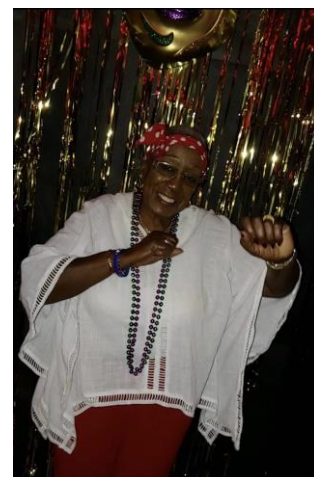

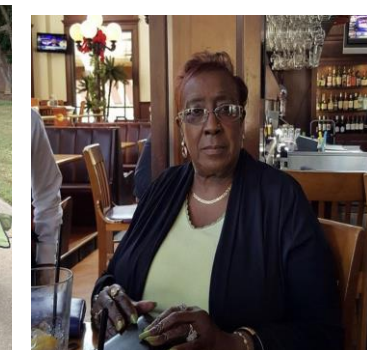

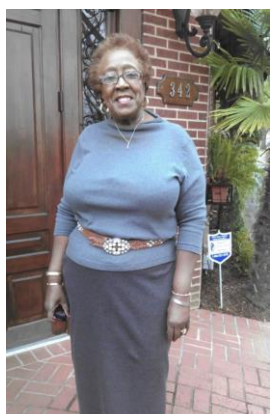

Mrs. Harrington was well known by many as a great cook and baker, winning and/or placing in several events at the South Carolina State Fair. She helped fundraising efforts for her church and organizations by preparing meals. In her spare time, she enjoyed reading the Bible, fellowshipping with friends and family, and listening to music. Those that knew her best, knew she loved to dance.

Mrs. Harrington served her community as a Fairwold Acres Voter Poll Representative, participated in American Business Women's Association, lifelong member of VFW Post 4262, and as a member of Zeta Amicae. Lastly, she was most proud of being a woman of God, a devoted wife, a loving mother, and caring friend to all.

Leaving to cherish her memory forever are: son, John (Tenesha) Harrington, of Katy, TX; son-in-law Anthony Welton, of Alpharetta, GA; grandsons, Austin K. Welton and John "TJ" Harrington; brother, Manson (Deborah) Tillman, sisters Lillie Scott, Peggy (Harry) Murray, LaFern Tillman-Albert, Betty Tillman, and Savillia (Ben) Jackson; a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

Mrs. Harrington was preceded in death by her husband, Army CSM John Harrington, Jr.; daughter, Audrey Welton; brother, James Tillman; sisters Eveleanor Butler, Elizabeth Taylor, Rhudine Thomas, and Gladys King.
