Gone Fishing

I've finished life's chores assigned to me,

So, put me on a boat headed out to sea.

Please send along my fishing pole

For I've been invited to the fishin' hole.

Where every day is a day to fish,

To fill your heart with every wish.

Don't worry, or feel sad for me.

I'm fishin' with the Master of the sea.

We will miss each other for a while,

But you will come and bring your smile.

That won't be long you will see,

Till we're together you and me

To all of those that think of me,

Be happy as I go out to sea.

If other wonder why I'm missin'

Just tell 'em I've gone fishin'

Obituary of Mr. Timothy Worthy

Mr. Timothy Worthy was born October 11, 1951, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the fourth child of the late Harry Worthy, Sr. and Elizabeth Roberts Worthy. He entered eternal rest on Friday, February 10, 2023, at Prisma Health Richland Hospital, in Columbia South Carolina.

Mr. Worthy, who was known for his contagious laugh, charm, and welcoming personality attended C.A. Johnson High School. While still in high school, he began working with his uncle to earn some extra income. He went on mastering the skill of construction, and became an independent contractor. Tim, as he was affectionally called, never fully retired. He kept doing any type of work that kept him occupied. He always taught us "a man who doesn't, work don't eat."

He enjoyed a hunting, he was a great cook, but everyone who knew him, knew he loved to go fishing. He would go fishing with his grandson, family, and friends. After a successful fishing trip, he would proudly call around to plan a fish fry. Tim loved his Washington Redskins and Lakers. He made sure to let you know with a little friendly trash talk, and a pointing gesture towards his hat or jacket as a reminder.

Tim met the love of his life and was later united in holy matrimony to Lindirish Washington Worthy. They were married on February 24, 1973. They remained married for nearly beautiful 50 years. Before he made any decisions, he made sure to tell you "let me talk to Lin about it first." He loved his wife and was the true definition of a "girl dad." He protected his family, and loved them dearly.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Harry Worthy, Jr., and sisters, Brenda Worthy Minnis and Catherine Worthy Ross.

Tim leaves to cherish his loving memory: his wife Lindirish Washington Worthy; three daughters, Celeste V. Worthy, Shanderlyne (Nuwan) Worthy, Tarica Worthy (Joseph Payne); grandchildren Asia, Shamecca, Keion, Justin, Laila, and Aiden; four great-grandchildren; mother-in-law, Thedora Brown Washington; aunt, Frazell Roberts; in-laws, who were affectionately known as in-loves; a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and friends, who he went through this journey of life with him and will miss him dearly.
