I Was Loved.....

*I was loved, therefore I am;
And in being loved, I am treasured.
When I peeled away my layers,
And all that was left was my essence,
The bareness of me,
I was still loved.
I was loved, therefore I am;
And in being loved, I was able to grow.
In my mistakes held,
In my successes celebrated,
I was always loved.
I was loved, therefore I am;
And in being loved, I learned to love.
In the sun filled day,
In the ecstasy of the night,
I was loved and loved others.
To be loved is all you need:
I was loved...and so, I will always be.*

*Obituary
of
Ms. Cynthia Elaine Finch*

Ms. Cynthia Elaine Finch was born on July 13, 1952, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the youngest child of the late Marion Finch and Mattie Louise Brown. She departed this earthly realm on Saturday, March 4, 2023.

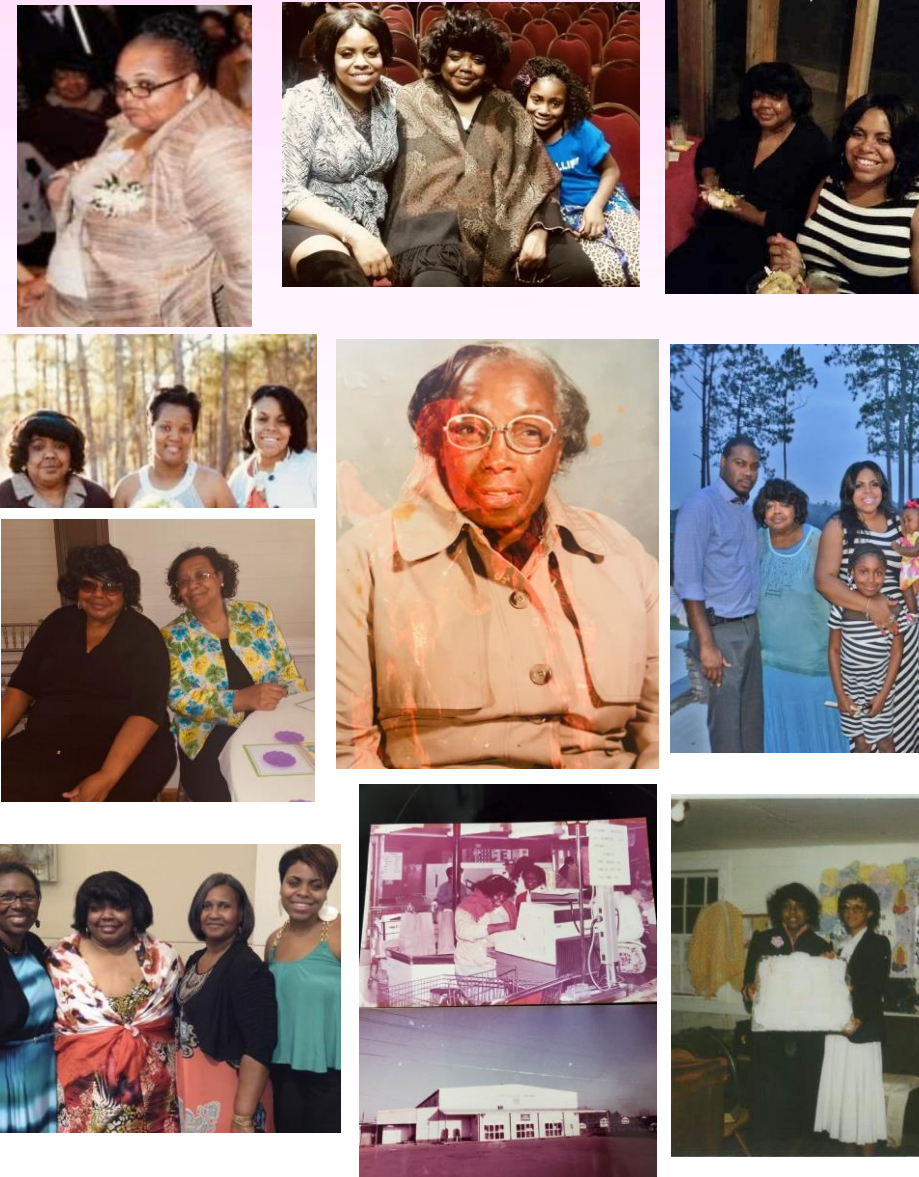

Ms. Finch was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. She was a 1972 graduate of Booker T. Washington High School. After graduation, she attended Midlands Technical College studying psychology because of her love for people. She later began her career at the Fort Jackson Commissary, and retired after 34 beautiful years of dedicated service.

During Cynthia's beautiful time on earth, she attended Bible Way Church of Atlas Road and Tabernacle Pentecostal Holiness Church. She lived a life of learning and discovery through her love of books. She was a confidant to all she knew. Her laugh and smile would uplift anyone in her presence. Cynthia was a true beacon of light to all of her family and friends. She will be greatly missed.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother, Cornelius Brown.

Ms. Cynthia Elaine Finch leaves to mourn her passing: her daughter, Desiree Mattie Finch Stuckey (Larry Keyon Stuckey); two granddaughters, Raegan Elaine Stuckey and Kylee Keyan Stuckey; a sister, Martha Mae Boyd (Albert); four nieces; three nephews; a host of great nieces, great-nephews, a life-long best friend, Bessie Watson and her family, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
