

Remember Me

Margaret Mead

To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful, I will never return,

...

But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.

I cannot speak, but I can listen.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So as you stand upon a shore
gazing at a beautiful sea,
As you look upon a flower
and admire its simplicity,
Remember me.

Remember me in your heart:
Your thoughts, and your memories,
Of the times we loved,
The times we cried,
The times we fought,
The times we laughed.
For if you always think of me,
I will never have gone.

Obituary

Mr. L.M. Clark-Graham II, affectionately known as “Nova Scotia,” was born November 29, 1964, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the loving son of the late L.M. Clark, Sr. and Mattie Belle Palmer of Columbia, South Carolina.

L.M. received his early education Richland County, Columbia. He attended A.C. Flora High School.

Those who knew him fondly remember him as an individual who was always enthusiastic about family and sports. He enjoyed playing and watching sports and staying loyal to his favorite team The Carolina Panthers and his favorite player, Lebron James. He particularly enjoyed hosting with friends and family so much he invested in owning his own Event Space.

After attending A.C. Flora High School, L.M. worked at Ed Robinson Laundry & Dry Cleaning Service. He also held various roles within the community as a Pillar of Leadership and an example of hard work and grit.

L.M. loved his family, planning family gatherings, and sharing gifts. He enjoyed instilling wisdom and knowledge into his entire family for the betterment of unity. He was a fashionista he took pride in keeping his children, nieces, nephews, and younger cousins well-dressed in the latest fashion and had the latest technology. He even provided monetary support for family and community – especially in most difficult times. He felt charged to lead the family and worked to ensure his brothers and sisters were provided for after his parents’ passing. L.M. discovered the Islamic faith which brought him peace during a specific moment of his adulthood.

On Monday, March 6, 2023, L.M. departed from this earth to take up eternal residence in his heavenly home. He will be sorely missed by his loving family and by the many friends and associates who mourn his passing.

L.M. was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. L.M. Clark, Sr. and Ms. Mattie Belle Palmer; two brothers, Tyrone Clark and Terry Clark.

L.M. leaves to cherish his memory: four loving children, Miss Chasity Broughton, of Atlanta, Georgia, Mr. L M Clark, III, of Stockbridge, Georgia, Miss Morgan Bankston, of Columbia, South Carolina, and Master Nasir Clark, of Stockbridge, Georgia. He also leaves to mourn: his one granddaughter, Miss Madison Mobley, of Columbia, South Carolina. He is also survived by loving and praying sisters, Francina Palmer, Adriene Hopkins, Patricia Griffin, and Crystal Faye Clark; and one loyal younger brother, Kerry Twin Clark; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
