I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.*

Obituary

Ms. Cynthia Diane Hampton, affectionately known as “Ma Hamp, Auntie, and Grandma,” was born on July 3, 1953, in Hopkins, SC, to the late Lawyer Hampton, Jr. and Ethel Mae Belton Hampton. She departed this life on March 7, 2023.

Diane attended Booker T. Washington High School, Columbia, SC. For many years she worked for Johnson Food Service where she later retired in 2013.

Diane was a dedicated mother first and foremost. She loved to love on people. She enjoyed talking on the phone with her sons, cooking a pot of beans (any kind), watching wrestling, doing crossword puzzles, and talking meaningless trash. Most of all, she loved her family and instilled in her sons strong values that have served them well.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers, Mark Hampton, and Wynn “Shorty” Hampton.

Diane leaves to mourn her passing: two loving sons, Sederick Darnell Hampton and Travis Omar Hampton, both of Columbia, SC; two sisters, Brenda Byrd and Beverly Jean Hampton, both of Columbia, SC; one brother, Kenneth Hampton, of Columbia, SC; two aunts, Dorothy Jones, of Hopkins, SC and Mary Lee Moore, of Columbia, SC; four nephews, Victor (Beverly) Sims, of Murfreesboro, TN, John (Kymburle) Sims, Brian Hampton, and Rashard Hampton, all of Columbia, SC; six nieces, Andrea Hampton, Kristy Williams, Kimberly Hampton, Iris (Tamara) Hampton-Boone, Deidra Bryd, and Kenisha Hampton, all of Columbia, SC; eleven great-nephews, twelve great nieces, a host of other loving relatives, and friends, all of whom she loved and touched deeply.
