

*To Those I Love and
To Those Who Love Me*

When I am gone release me; let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tie yourself to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love – you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown.
But now it is time I traveled on alone.
So, grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must;
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call. I will come.
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near;
And if you listen with your heart you will hear
All of my love around you, soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say
"Welcome Home."

Obituary

Mr. Keith Wilford Jackson was born on February 13, 1954, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the beloved son of the late Phillip and Catherine Jackson. He departed this life to be with the Lord on February 28, 2023.

Keith was educated in the public school systems of Richland County. He was a graduate of A.C. Flora High School. Keith was employed with the City of Columbia.

“Uncle Keith,” as he was affectionately called, shared a very close bond with his nieces and nephews. His loving smile and infectious laugh will be deeply missed.

In addition to his parents, Keith was preceded in death by his siblings, Karl W. Jackson, Daniel Jackson, Phillip Jackson, Jr., Alford Jackson, Catherine Jackson, and Phyllis Jackson.

Those left to cherish precious memories of Keith are: his five sisters, Henrietta (Edward) Shackelford, Doris (Eddie) Martin, Jacqueline Keeno, Loretta Washington, and Sandra Eigner; his uncle, Reverend Eddie L. Mayes; a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss Keith dearly.
