

To My Husband

Let us love with a love that will never grow old,
Let our dreams turn to silver, our memories gold.
Let me be the friend who knows your heart best,
Let heaven be a place, of comfort and rest,
Let your heart be assured,
That you were to me,
All the wonderful things that a husband could be.
~Your Loving Wife,
Kim

To My Brother--In-Law

As you transition from the arms of your wife and children, into the arms of our father; I heard your whisper upon the wind. "Goodbye for now GOD has called my name."

Tell my family to mourn for now, but not too long, because I am at peace and the pain is gone. Please don't allow them to lie over me. Let them know that I smoke, drink, and cuss, and my Lord has forgiven my past and brought me home. If you find a penny upon the ground, pick it up and think of me, let it take you to the place that shares our greatest memory. Cause just like the penny, "In GOD We Trusted," I am now sitting at the throne in the Kingdom of Our Father. Another chain has broken, but we all know this is the pass to the Kingdom of Our Father
~Bert
