Reflections of the Life
of
Mr. Charlton JaKhia Hickman
“Big Cee”

Mr. Charlton “Big Cee” JaKhia Hickman was born on January 6, 2005, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the middle child of Kandee Wilson and Charlton Hickman. He departed this life on April 9, 2023.

Charlton lived his life in smiles, peace, and harmony. The abundance of love and respect he had for his friends, family, and loved ones could never be measured or replaced. CeeJay Hickman had high hopes for his adulthood and was destined for a very bright future. CeeJay was respectable and a gentleman with an enormous heart. He possessed qualities as a child that made him much wiser beyond his years. He was a very athletic and friendly kid. He had a huge passion for basketball. Everyone who met CeeJay loved him. He took great care of not only himself, but his family, friends, and even strangers. CeeJay was a very bright kid and was so ready to conquer the world. He was very responsible and helped his Mom so much around the house. CeeJay was the kind of kid that you never had to ask to do anything. He was so attentive to his mother’s wants and needs. CeeJay was very excited to drive. He received his license to drive on April 4, 2023. He was always anxious to get behind the wheel. CeeJay was always a very clean and well-kept kid from the day he was born. He loved his home and everything in it. He loved being home and always stayed out of trouble. He always had everyone he knew and loved one’s best interest at heart.

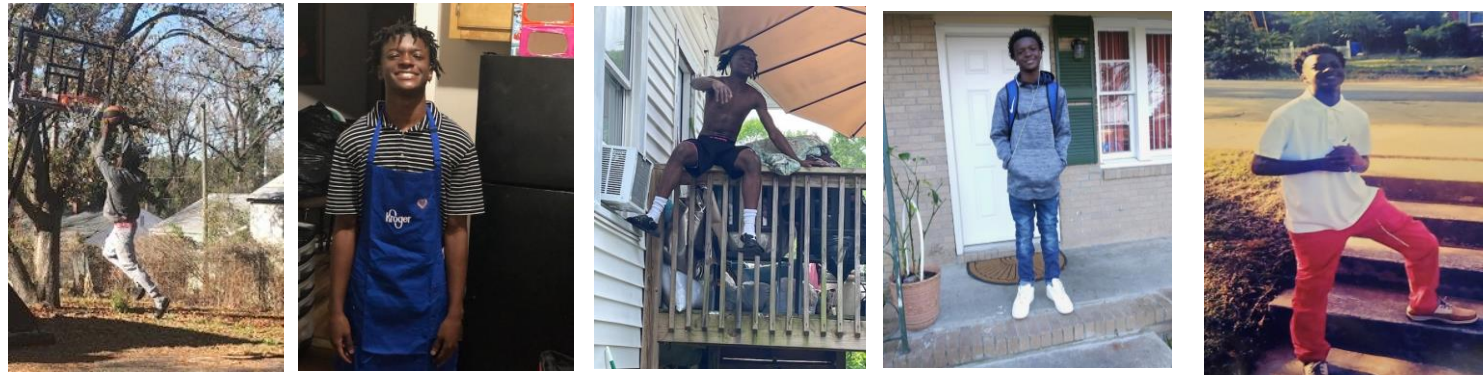

Mr. Charlton “Big Cee” JaKhia Hickman leaves to mourn his passing: his parents, Kandee (Brian) Gadson; father, Charlton Hickman; sisters, Puanjai Ellison and London Hickman; grandparents, Lynn Sherred Mars and Tommie (Annie) Wilson, Jaequelyn Hickman and Charles Hickman; aunts, Niki Joyner, Shervonne Simmons, Shawna Wilson, and LaShun Hickman; uncles, Anthony (Martina) Mitchell, Jerome Wilson, William (Toni) Taylor, Kevin Hickman, Shon Hickman, and Marcus Hickman; honorary aunts, Tamara Kelly, Carolyn Graham, Jennifer Jackson, and Shondell Fields. Host of other relatives and friends who loved him dearly.

Finished Business

*As I smile shining down looking upon you,
I see you weep.
Please be happy for me.
I’ve gained my wings.
I’m so happy I get to fly now,
And I’m not talking about traffic.
Feel my presence and my arms wrapped around you.
As you cry I’ll wipe your tears,
And give you a million kisses on your forehead.
Don’t worry about me, I’m in a better place.
A place that we will meet again.
I love you and appreciate all the love shown
To me throughout the years.
I know you are hurting, but one day you will heal.
And I will be here every step of the way.
Even though you don’t see me or feel me.
Trust me, I’ll always be by your side,
Just like you were for me.
Remember I am home finally.
We will meet again someday.*

*For my love, my heart, my everything, my Mom!
