

A Sister's Love Will Never Die

*Jackie, how is it that I never saw your wings
When you were here with me
When you close your eyes in the early Morning light, I could hear the faint
Flutter of your heart leave me so peacefully*

*I closed my eyes with tears in my hands
Surrounded by the whims of your Heavenly
Father placing your wings in your hands*

*It seems just like yesterday we were Laughing and talking about old times,
About how Grandma made our checkered
Skirt that had that big shiney pin on the side*

*I will miss you forever my J.C.O., my Sister, my Angel and for sure my friend
But your time with us has come to an end*

*I know we will meet again to tell about
The time we had apart, we will sing, laugh,
And hug a whole lot*

*Rest now my sweetheart, my Angel, my Sis,
You know I will always love you, but God loves you best.*

*Forever,
Valerie*

Obituary
of
Ms. Jacqueline Lurks

Ms. Jacqueline Lurks affectionately called, Ma Dukez, Sissy, J.C.O., MiMi, and Ms. Jackie was born on October 10, 1958, in Brooklyn, New York to the proud parents of Marvin and Eartha Lurks. She departed this life on Thursday, April 27, 2023.

Jacqueline attended Central Islip High School, in Central Islip, New York, where she was a 1976 graduate. At an early age, she joined Hope Missionary Baptist Church, where she sang with the Voices of Hope. She later moved to Columbia, South Carolina, where she worked at Mount Vernon Mills as a Spinner for 15 years. After closing, she worked for Colonial Life Insurance Company as a Sorter and Machine Programmer.

She was a member of Ridgewood Misisonary Baptist Church, under the leadership of Reverend Fred W. Coit, where she served as an usher.

Jacqueline was always a happy spirit and was well-known in the areas she lived in: Tiffany Gardens, Hillandale, Willow Run, Hollywood Hills, and last but not least Apple Valley. All will miss and cherish the wonderful times shared with Jacqueline. Her infectous spirit to shop will never be forgotten. Especially at her favortie stores: Walmart, Burlington, and Ross. In the afternoons after all the shopping was done, she could be found watching her favorite shows: Jerry Springer, Divorce Court, Judge Judy, and Judge Mathis. No one ever wanted to get her started in a conversation about basetball and tennis.

She was preceded in death by her father, Marvin Lurks.

Ms. Jacqueline Lurks leaves to cherish her precious memory: daugthers, Lashawnda Richardson and Sequoia Lurks, both of Columbia, South Carolina; four grandchildren, Samaia, De'Sean, Se'Riah, and SeKari, all of Columbia, South Carolina; her mother, Eartha Lurks, of Cayce, South Caorlina; three aunts, Effie Gladden, Ida May Tyler, Candace (Mark) Johnson, all of Columbia, South Carolina; four uncles, Joe Eddie (Shirley) Lurks, of Newbern, Tennessee, Al (Mammie) Gladden, and Michael (Eloise) Gladden, both of Orangeburg, South Carolina; one nephew, Corte' Brown, of Virginia; a host of other family memers, and friends, all of whom will miss her.
