Family and Friends

*When life seems a blur,
And I can't quite believe
That I'm living without you
And you were taken from me,*

*I sit back and think
Of the memories we shared,
All the laughs that you gave me
And the times that you cared.*

*'Til death do us part.
That's true in our case.
I miss you so much,
Your voice and your face.*

*Time is a healer.
I can't say that it's true,
But life does go on,
Which means without you.*

*When it all gets too much
And I wish you were here,
I feel thankful that I met you,
And I hold you close, my dear.*

*'Til death do us part.
That's true in our case.
I miss you so much,
Your voice and your face.*

Obituary

Mr. Charlie Murphy Jr. was born November 20, 1945, in Columbia South Carolina. He was the oldest child of the late Charlie Murphy, Sr. and Alice Anderson. He departed this life on Thursday, April 6, 2023.

Mr. Murphy was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. He was a graduate of Booker T. Washington High School, class of 1963. He was drafted into the United States Army at Fort Jackson, South Carolina, and served in Vietnam. After his tour of service ended, he made Columbia, South Carolina his home. He worked as a Glazier with Richland County School District 1. He retired from the Jewish Community Center, in Columbia SC

Mr. Murphy was baptized at an early age. He was a trustee in the past. He recently served on the Jubilee choir and the Brotherhood. He enjoyed gardening, watching sports, dressing sharp, and people-watching.

In addition to his parents Charlie Murphy Sr. and Alice Anderson, he was preceded in death by his brother, Albert Murphy.

Mr. Charlie Murphy, Jr. leaves to mourn his passing: his wife, Joanne of Columbia, SC; a son, Charlie Murphy III, of Columbia, SC; three daughters, Aliceson Murphy McCormick, of Rock Hill, SC, Janel Jones (Herbert), of Columbia, SC, and Bettina Henderson (Sebastian), of Columbia, SC; two step-children, Carolyn Ellison (Kelvin) and James Garrick ( Latasha), both of Columbia, SC; 18 grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren; many loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
