

Obituary

Mr. Eddie Thernell Noble was born on October 19, 1957, in Columbia, South Carolina. Eddie resided in Philadelphia, PA for majority of his adulthood, before returning to his hometown. He was the youngest child of the late Herman Noble and Elizabeth Sutter Noble.

Eddie's legacy as a hard-working truck driver for over three decades was passed down to his son, Eddie Brandon Noble. He was known to keep his family and friends laughing with his quick wit and endearing personality.

He attended W.J. Keenan High School. He was baptized at an early age and was a member of Greenview First Baptist Church. He found solace in his faith.

In addition to his parents, Eddie was preceded in death by his brother, Larry Noble, and sister, Emily Rickenbaker.

Eddie leaves to mourn his passing: his son, Eddie Brandon Noble, of Columbia, South Carolina; brother, Herman Noble, of Norris Town, Pennsylvania; granddaughter, Eniyah Brandi Noble; grandsons, Joshua Noble and Tavares Noble, all of Columbia, South Carolina; aunt, Nadine Murphy (101 years old), of Columbia, South Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be
He wrapped His arms around you,
And whispered, "Come to Me."
With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer
And saw you fade away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.
