

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.*

I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today, while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

*When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand*

*The angel said my place was ready in heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.*

*But when I walked through Heaven's gate, I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me from His great golden throne.*

*He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you."
Today my life on earth is past, but here it starts anew*

*I promise no tomorrow but today will always last
And since each day's the same day, there's no longing for the past.*

*So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time, you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.*

Obituary of Taco

Mr. Travis Dontrell Taylor, affectionately known as “Taco,” was born on August 18, 1982, in Florence, South Carolina. He was the son of Ida Taylor and Andrew Alford. “Taco” departed this life on Saturday, April 8, 2023.

Travis attended the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. After his junior year at Spring Valley High School, Travis attended and graduated from Job Corps in Bamberg, South Carolina.

“Taco” became the owner and operator of Capital Motors, LLC, and Capital Transport for five years. His goal was to always be of service to people.

At the age of one, “Taco” lost his father. He grew up in the Eau Claire Community with his mother, and his two brothers, Salih Abdur-Rasheed and Brian D. Williams.

“Taco” was a great father, full of love, and giving to his children and every child he was given the opportunity to be a father to. He cared for them and loved them. Kayla, Trayonna, Layla, Paris, Travis, Jr. (TJ), and Ahnesti, all held a special place in his heart.
