

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Life's Reflections of Mrs. Cindy Kay Brown

Mrs. Cindy Kay Brown was born July 13, 1971, in West Columbia, South Carolina. She was the daughter of Raymond Tillmon and the late Regina Brown. Cindy accepted Christ at a young age and was baptized at Brookland Baptist Church, in West Columbia, SC. Cindy answered God's call home on Friday, May 5, 2023, surrounded by her loving family.

Cindy was a 1989 graduate of Brookland-Cayce High School, in Cayce, South Carolina. During her high school years, she was well-decorated with her involvement in many activities including: the Spanish Club, Cheerleading Team, Homeroom Council Representative, and Homecoming Attendant. In addition to her activities, she excelled academically. Her accomplishments included: graduating in the top 10% of her class, Clemson Career Workshop, National Honors Society member, Columbia College Scholar, and a Brookland Baptist Educational Scholarship recipient. She went on to further her education attending Clemson University, on scholarship, receiving her Bachelor of Science in Ceramic Engineering, 1993.

Cindy met her husband, Steven Brown while attending Clemson University. After college, they were engaged and married on October 25, 1997. From their union, two children were born, Kayla Alexandria Brown and Christian Davis Brown.

Cindy worked in the Insurance industry for 29 years. She began as a Loss Protection Engineer, later to become an Underwriter Technician. She spent the last twenty-plus years as a Commercial Underwriting Consultant. She was actively involved in her community, serving as a volunteer for the Lilburn Co-Op and Atlanta Clemson Club.

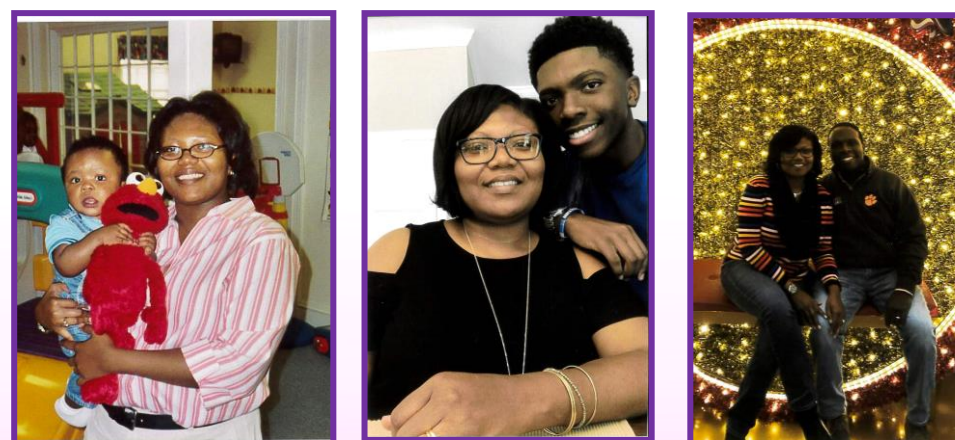

In 2000, Cindy joined New Birth Missionary Baptist Church, in Lithonia Georgia. While a member of New Birth, she was active in Children's Sunday School Ministry. She later joined New Mercies Christian Church, in 2013 and was an active member with the Mercy Seed Food Pantry Ministry and Women's Choir.

Cindy's hobbies consisted of watching crime shows, Lifetime movies, doing puzzles, taking pictures, trying out new recipes, and being active in her kid's activities as a soccer mom.

Cindy was beloved by many of her family, friends, and co-workers. She was beautiful inside as she was outside. She was well-known for her infectious personality, which was known to be positive in nature, funny, comforting, and supportive.

Cindy leaves to honor her memory: her loving and devoted husband of 25 years, Steven T. Brown; two children, Kayla Brown and Christian Brown; father, Raymond Tillmon; mother-in-law, Lucretia Brown; sister, Felicia (Sam) Clowney; two sisters-in-law, Katina Brown and Shelia Brown; three nephews, Sean Brown, Alex Brown, and Noah Clowney; and three nieces, Alexseia Brown, Kylen Clowney, and Kennedy Clowney. Though she is no longer physically with us, her loving and kind spirit will forever live in the hearts of those she touched.
