

Obituary

Mrs. Shirley Jackie Dinwiddie was born on January 3, 1940, in Orangeburg, SC. She was the youngest child of the late Mattie Lee Green and Henry Jamison. She peacefully departed this earthly life on Wednesday, May 24, 2023.

After raising her children, Shirley spent many years working as a nursing assistant in the long-term healthcare field before ultimately deciding to stay at home and enjoy her grandchildren. They will fondly remember the many stories she shared about the people she'd been privileged to serve. However, her push to help others didn't stop there; she actively donated to area charities and encouraged her grandchildren to get involved in the community.

The only thing Shirley loved more, was praising the Lord. She never missed a Sunday tuning into the services of First Baptist Church, from the comforts of her home. She would often be heard singing the hymns well throughout the week.

In addition to her parents, Shirley was also preceded in death by her husband, Ernest Dinwiddie; daughter, Ernestine Jones; and her son Allen Dinwiddie. While those left behind will miss her presence, we find comfort in the fact that she is reunited with her husband and children.

Mrs. Shirley Jackie Dinwiddie leaves to mourn her passing: her grandchildren, Alicia Dinwiddie, Dominique Jones, and Dontrell Jones, all of Columbia, SC; sisters, Betty Jamison of Orangeburg, SC, Debra (Hercules) Ellis, of Mt. Vernon, NY, and Patricia Jamison Odom, of Blackville, SC; brothers, Tommy Jamison and Jimmy (Portia) Holliday, both of Atlanta, GA, and John Hollman, of Quantico, VA; a son-in-love, Dannie Burrell; three great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, all of whom will miss her.

Grandma

By: Mycala Wilson

*If Flowers could bloom in heaven, then I ask the Lord to pick a lot for me;
I ask that he tell my grandmother I miss her, and they are from me.*

*You fed us well, you kept us strong
You loved us whether we were right or wrong
You taught us to love everyone good or bad
You told us when this day came, to not be sad
Grandma you were an amazing woman, friend, mom and wife*

*& this poem isn't to say goodbye
But rather to see you in another life*

*Your Grandchildren
Alicia, Dominique & Dontrell*
