

A Beautiful Life

*To have you was a boundless pleasure
So we're thankful to have found this treasure
A mother who loved more than her own
With more than words your love was shown*

*You danced with us to happy songs
But corrected us throughout our wrongs
Inside us you sowed something whole
That will always live within our souls*

*A "perfect life" you didn't live
Yet a "perfect love" you had to give
No queen could wear the crown much better
We all were blessed to have even met her*

*You were far more deeper than the surface
As you lived your life with flair and purpose
A doting mother and beautiful wife
You all in all live a beautiful life*

Your Loving Son,
Chris

of Mrs. Maggie Morris Anderson

Mrs. Maggie Morris Anderson was born on July 23, 1941, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Edward Morris and the late Christine Aiken. She departed this life on Wednesday, June 14, 2023.

Maggie affectionately known as “Mutt,” by her family and friends was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. After graduating high school, Maggie was employed at Fort Jackson for many years until she retired.

She loved dancing, fishing, and singing. Maggie was always the life of the party. She had a heart as pure as gold. She loved everyone that she met, however, she had a special love for her children and grandchildren.

In addition to her parents, Maggie was preceded in death by her husband, George “Chief” Anderson; and sons, Irving Diamond and Cornelius Diamond.

Those left to cherish her fond memory are: her only daughter, Vera (Terrance) Curry, of Columbia, South Carolina; sons, George Anderson III, Christopher Diamond, and Tony (Keisha) Anderson, all of Columbia, South Carolina; one sister, Barbara Yolanda (Michael) Davis, of Columbia, South Carolina; one brother, Ned Marshall; three sisters-in-law; thirteen grandchildren; fifteen great-grandchildren; her dearest and closest friends of many years, Brenda Taylor and Mary Anderson; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, uncles, other loving family and friends, all of whom will continue to love and miss her dearly.
