

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning,
that God was going to call your name.*

*In life we loved you, dearly,
in death, we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go alone;*

*For part of us went with you
the day God called you home.*

*You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide.*

*And though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same.*

*But as God calls us one by one,
the Chain will link again.*

We love and miss you ever so much.

Reflections of A Wonderful Life

Mrs. Beatrice Brown Bossard

Mrs. Beatrice Brown Bossard lovingly referred to as “Bea” by those who knew and loved her, entered eternal rest on Wednesday, June 28, 2023.

Bea was born on May 16, 1937, in Blair, South Carolina, to the late James “JB” Brown and Willie Mae Stone Brown Burley. She was married to the late Hillard Lomax Bossard, Jr. for 49 years.

Beatrice was a 1957 graduate of C. A. Johnson High School. She worked for many years as a Licensed Practical Nurse (L.P.N.) at Richland Memorial Hospital, C.M. Tucker Center, Doctor’s Care, and the James R. Clark Sickle Cell Center.

She attended Saint John Baptist Church on Farrow Road and Zion Baptist Church on Washington Street.

Beatrice was a member of the C. A. Johnson Alumni Association, National Nurses Association, and the United Order of Tents (Logan Tents).

Bea’s hobbies were cooking, baking, traveling, and playing spades. Her favorite pastime was spending time with her family whom she loved dearly. Always being regarded as the “life of the party,” her life, love, and compassion had a far-reaching impact on her family and many others.

Mrs. Beatrice Brown Bossard leaves to cherish her memory: one sister of the home, Dorothy Brown (William) Booker; a nephew reared in the home, James “Chris” (Janitra) Hall, of Columbia, South Carolina; a niece, Michelle Booker, of Columbia, SC; nephews, Ronald (Renee) Brown, of Columbia, SC, Terry (Carla) Brown, of Columbia, SC, and William “Lynn” Booker III, of Moss Point, Mississippi; great-nieces, Jasmine A. Brown, of Columbia, SC and Princess Mae Hall, of Greenville, SC; a great-nephew, Ronald Brown II, of Englewood, California; goddaughter, Kelli McCray, of Raleigh, North Carolina; a host of cousins and friends, all who will miss her dearly.
